FIRE CAUSES LOSS OF $25,000

FIFTY-TWO MEN ENTOMBED IN ENGLISH MINE

Abandon Hope For Rescue Of Trapped Miners

Hundred Brought at Of Mine, But Suffering From Gas

SIXTEEN KILLED IN ANOTHER DISASTER

Rescue Work Is Diffult Because Of Presence Of "After Damp

(International News Srice)
EBBW VALE, England, March 1.—At least 52 men are entombed in the W. M. mines, with all hope of their rescue abandoned.

Nearly a hundred other miners have been brought to the surface suffering from gas.

The tragedy was caused by the explosion of gas in one of the chambers of the mine and the presence of "aft damp" made it necessary to stop rescue work at 1:30 ts afternoon.

The management of the C. W. M. mines states that it fears the death list will total 52.

A hundred and thirty-five miners were known to have been in the mine at the time of the explosion. Of these 85 were brout to the surface, all alive though badly gassed. The others stil are missing and it is feared that they have perished.

In Main Galle

The explosion, which was not heard on the surface, curred in one of the main galles of the mine and brought dow much of the roof, thus blocking the exits. The whole town of Ebb Vale was immediately mobilized for rescue work, but clouds of poisous gases arising from the wreck shaft seriously impeded the wokers.

The rescue squads woed heroically, the general manager of the

Unclothed Woman Is Found Dead In Hotel; Hold Husband

(International News Srice)
CHICAGO, March 1—Carl Wood, hotel employe was being held today pending the inquest into the death of Mrs. Mabel Wood, his 18-year-old bride.

Mrs. Wood's nude body was found in a hotel bathroom at the end of a hall, thirty feet from her own apartment. Several marks on the body indicated violence.

Giving weight to the theory of foul play is the fact that no clothing, not even a bath robe, was found in the bathroom.

Police, summoned by the young husband who found the body, believed the woman had fainted.

Her heart was still beating when they arrived, the officers said. A pulmotor was applied but efforts to revive her failed.

Wood maintained he knew nothing of the circumstances surrounding her death.

Arsenal Fire Near Shanghai Alarms Natives

American Bluejackets Gain Bloodless Victory Over Chinese

SEIZED STEAMER IS RECAPTURED

By ALFRED MEYER
International News Service Staff Correspondent
SHANGHAI, March 1.—An outbreak of fire near the Lungwha arsenal on the outskirts of Shanghai caused panic conditions in part of the native city today, detracting from the general tension of the military situation.

Fusing of an electric wire is believed to have been responsible for the fire which destroyed ten outbuildings of the arsenal. Fears of explosions, due to the huge stores of munitions in the arsenal, caused a panic among the native residents near the arsenal.

The fire was under control after four hours of arduous labor, firemen being forced to work amidst a rain of explosive bullets.

PEKING, March 1.—American bluejackets on the U. S. S. Pigeon today gained a bloodless victory over a band of Chinese soldiers at Hankow, who had seized a Standard Oil steamer, the S. S. Meihong. The Chinese were disarmed without a shot being fired.

One hundred Chinese soldiers seized the Standard Oil vessel at Shasi and brought it to Hankow. On the Meihong's arrival there American bluejackets from the gunboat Pigeon boarded her and pilot-

See New Fight On Oil Leases

Doheny Will Seek To Have Money Expended Returned To Him

COURT PUTS MATTER UP TO CONGRESS

By WILLIAM S. NEAL
International News Service Staff Correspondent
WASHINGTON, March 1.—The celebrated oil leases which ex-Secretary of the Interior Albert B. Fall made to companies of Edward L. Doheny and Harry F. Sinclair will become the center of a new fight in future congresses, it appeared today.

Friends of Doheny are expected to present a demand to congress for repayment of $12,000,000 which Doheny's companies spent on oil storage tanks at the Pearl Harbor, Hawaii, naval base, and for oil actually furnished the navy.

The supreme court in its sweeping decision setting aside the Doheny lease to the Elk Hills naval oil reserve on the ground of fraud and illegality, held that the question of reimbursement was solely one for congress to decide.

Not For Courts.

"Whatever their usefulness or value," said the court, referring to expenditures at Pearl Harbor, "it is not for the courts to decide whether any of these things are needed or should be retained or used by the United States. Such questions are for the determination of congress."

The court's accounting showed that Doheny's companies claimed $11,786,928.12 from the government, not including recent interest charges. Of this more than $7,000,000 was expended upon Pearl Harbor fuel storage tanks.

$20,000,000 Invested.

State Police Will Be Located Here

Through the efforts of District Attorney J. Elder Bryan two members of the Pennsylvania mounted state police will be permanently located in New Castle. District Attorney Bryan has been working on the proposition for some time, first interviewing the captain of the state police at the Butler barracks and then the superintendent in Harrisburg.

Arrangements have been made for boarding the police and keeping their horses with Robert Weller of 446 Croton avenue. They are expected to arrive in New Castle the latter part of this week or the first of next week. Expenses of keeping the police here will be born by the state. As soon as the state police arrive their telephone number will be given so that persons desiring their services will know where to call.

Tri-Partite Conference Is Not Favored

Great Britain Only For Five-Power Naval Disarmament Parley

HOPE FOR FURTHER NOTE ON MATTER

England Can't Participate If Italy And France Are Not Included

BY F. A. WRAY
International News Service Staff Correspondent
LONDON, March 1.—Great Britain's reply to President Coolidge's disarmament proposals has reference only to the original proposal for a five-power disarmament conference and has no relevance to any subsequent suggestion for a tri-partite conference, the International News Service was informed today in authoritative government circles.

The government spokesman made it clear that Great Britain is not at all likely to accept any proposal for a disarmament conference between the United States, Great Britain and Japan.

Must Protect Routes.

Emphasis was laid on that portion of the British reply which stated that British trade routes must be protected. It was pointed out that these trade routes for the most part pass through the Mediterranean and therefore Great Britain can not participate in any disarmament conference where the principle Mediterranean powers, France and Italy, are absentees.

Should any proposals for a tripartite conference be made Great Britain would consider them only if they were confined to the Pacific.

Official circles here admit they anticipate a further communication from President Coolidge with reference to the reservations made by Sir Austen Chamberlain in the British note published yesterday.

Stress is also laid on the fact that the original American suggestion merely called for "conversations" on disarmament and it was stated that Great Britain will not decline any discussions as long as she is not bound in advance.

The British reply will be debated in the House of Commons on Thursday and it is expected that Lloyd George, Liberal leader, and Ramsay MacDonald, Labor leader, will take occasion to criticize the government for its attitude towards the proposals.

Case Against Senator-Designate Frank L. Smith Pigeonholed

BY WILLIAM K. HUTCHINSON
International News Service Staff Correspondent
WASHINGTON, March 1.—Its legislative wheels braked by Filibusters, the dying sixty-ninth congress today faced an outburst of politics on the senatorial stage.

Having established senatorial "slush funds" as a national issue, the Reed committee returned to the spotlight to demand that the senate prosecute three recalcitrant witnesses for contempt and then to extend its authority throughout the coming recess of congress. There was little or no opposition to the contempt proceedings, but a dozen senators protested against giving the committee power to make any further investigations.

Movie Actress To Be Co-respondent In Chaplin Suit

(International News Service)
LOS ANGELES, Mar. 1.—A well known Hollywood motion picture actress will be named as co-respondent in the amended divorce complaint of Lita Grey Chaplin against her famous husband, Charles Chaplin, film comedian, Lyndol L. Young, attorney for Mrs. Chaplin, told International News Service today. The attorney, however, would not divulge the actress' name.

Young's statement today was the first he has made in which he stated without qualification that Mrs. Chaplin would name a co-respondent.

"Not only will Mrs. Chaplin name a co-respondent," the attorney declared, "but she will not retract or modify in the slightest degree the previous charges she has made against her husband."

Mr. Rentz Attends Billy Sunday Meeting At Tampa, Florida

Continuing his interesting series of letters from the south, where he is enjoying a stay, Fred L. The letter follows:

George W. Conway,
Editor The News,
New Castle, Pa.

Dear George:—

I thought this a good day to start writing a letter telling you of my experiences in Florida since I wrote you my last letter dated Havana, Cuba. You will remember the last thing said in that effusion was that we were leaving that garlic and cig polluted country for America. We left at 9:30 in the morning in the same boat we arrived in, called the "Northland" The sea was very smooth as it was when we went over a few days ago from this country to Cuba. Many could not contain themselves on these trips on other days, but we came through with no inconveniences or losses. We got to Key West at about 4 p. m. and did not experience any of the annoyances we had to endure when reaching port in Cuba. The cabmen were not allowed near the custom house and the custom officers were also Americans and hereafter I am going to try and treat with Americans or those who want to be Americans whenever possible. The custom officials were just beautiful and many regretted exceedingly that they had not brought in scuttles of Bacardi rum and other potent libations. The bootlegers in Key West, however, were on the job and all who wanted the favorite rum of Cuba could get it at less than Cuban prices without any risk of being caught by any officers in Key West or anywhere else. County Delegation Meets Governor To Urge Second Judge

Lawrence County Men See Governor At Harrisburg This Afternoon

Seventeen In Party Urging That Bill Be Acted On Favorably

(From News Bureau State Capital)
HARRISBURG, March 1.—Lawrence county's contingent of attorneys and business men, seventeen strong, arrived here this morning, prepared to lay before governor John S. Fisher reasons enough for signing Senate bill 154, which authorizes an additional law judge for Lawrence county.

The delegation was headed by Attorney Charles H. Young and included the following: Attorneys William McElwee, George W. Muse, A. Martin Graham, Charles Matthews, Jr., C. V. Alley, Thomas W. Dickey, and E. F. G. Harper; Prothonotary Ralph M. Campbell, William A. Eakin, Charles H. Andrews, John A. Butler, Dr. W. Charles Wallace, president of Westminster college, Charles F. Morrow of Wampum, Clinton White, postmaster of New Wilmington, M. D. Wells, representing The Shenango Tin Plate and John A. Butler manager of The New Castle Tin plant.

During the morning session of the houses they were visitors at the session. At two o'clock they were joined by State Senator George T. Weingartner, Secretary of Agriculture Charles G. Jordan, and Representatives Bart Richards and M. A. Bickett and went into conference with Governor Fisher.

State Senator George T. Weingartner entertained the representatives in his district and their wives on Monday evening at dinner in The Penn Harris hotel. In addition to Senator Weingartner his wife, and daughter Miss Elizabeth, the following were present. Mr. and Mrs. Fred Patterson of New Brighton, Pa., Mr. and Mrs. Willard Reider of Patterson Heights, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Richardson of Beaver, Mr. and Mrs. J. O. McDonald of Harrisburg, Carl Marsteller of Wheatland, Pa., Secretary of Agriculture Charles G. Jordan, Attorney George W. Muse of New Castle, Will D. Williams, Jr., and Bart Richards.

Bills Continue To Drop Into Hopper Of State Assembly

Afix March 23 As Final Day For Introducing New Measures Before Session

(International News Service)
HARRISBURG, Pa., March 1.—More bills continued to drop into the House hopper today, March 23 having been fixed as the final date on which new bills may be introduced in the lower body of the general assembly. This week's session is expected to bring about a decided increase in the number of House bills presented.

Retires From Long Service

EDWARD H. GRACE

Edward H. Grace, who retires today from the position of assistant trainmaster, has served for 38 years and four months with the E. & A. division of the Pennsylvania railroad. Since he started as fireman, in 1888, he has steadily advanced in promotion until he spent several years in his present position.

Mr. Grace, who is known as "Daddy Grace" to his younger associates, will be greatly missed by all his friends and associates. He has been one of the favorites in his department. But he now expects to enjoy a well earned rest from his work, but we think that often his cheerful presence will be seen in the old haunts.

Three-Cent Gas Tax Bill Not Fisher's Measure

(BULLETIN)
(International News Service)
HARRISBURG, Pa., March 1.—The Hess three-cent gasoline tax bill, now before the House, is not the administration measure, Governor John S. Fisher asserted today. The bill was introduced last night with the governor's knowledge.

The bill which the administration will back will be ready for presentation tomorrow, it is expected. The governor refused to say whether it will be a two or three-cent tax. It will incorporate features intended to prevent bootlegging in gasoline and to tax gasoline now coming into the state in large quantities on consignment direct to the consumers.

The Hess bill, the governor said, was introduced so that it may be printed and considered along with the other gasoline taxation measures now before both houses.

The governor admitted that there was still much difference of opinion concerning the tax feature of the bill. The governor has favored the three-cent tax, while State Treasurer Samuel Lewis and other administration advisers have held out for two cents.

The Sesqui-Centennial debt validating measure now before the governor will be acted upon within the next 24 hours, it was said.

BRITISH SUBS RUN AGROUND

(International News Service)
PORTSMOUTH, England, March 1.—Two British submarines are grounded off Southsea.

The L-22 went aground first and when the H-48 went to its aid it was also grounded.

It is not believed that either vessel is endangered and both will probably be refloated on the high tide.

Three Business Places Suffer In Morning Blaze

Ebeling Electric Company On North Mill Street Entirely Gutted

TWO OTHER STORES SUFFER DAMAGE

False Alarms Also Turned In During Course Of This Fire

Fire, the cause of which is unknown, occuring shortly after 2 o'clock this morning, gutted the Ebeling Electric shop on the second floor of the Foltz building, North Mill street and Sycamore Way and resulted in the damaging by water of the Warren J. Wilkins meat market and A. & P. store on the first floor of the building. That the loss was not greater is due to the efficient work of the city firemen.

The loss is estimated at $25,000 by the fire authorities and also by the owners and managers of the respective business affected by the fire. The loss is largely covered by insurance.

J. M. Everhart, district manager of the A. & P. company, stated that the indicated loss in his company's store was between $2,000 and $3,000, being greater for the reason that some $1,200 worth of new goods having been placed in the store Monday. The company carries its own insurance.

Warren J. Wilkins, proprietor of the meat market in the building stated that it was impossible at this time to determine the full extent of his loss, but it was probable that it would be between $2,000 and $3,000 owing to water damage to equipment. He carried insurance.

Federal Building Program Hangs In Balance In Senate

(International News Service)
WASHINGTON, Mar. 1.—The hopes of hundreds of cities for new federal buildings hung in the balance today.

The situation briefly was:

A $19,800,000 appropriation bill carrying funds for 143 construction projects in 1928 passed the house late yesterday. This bill was based upon the $165,000,000 five-year program authorized last year.

Cloture was refused by the senate upon the Reed bill increasing this authorization $100,000,000, thus making its passage doubtful.

Should this measure pass, however, treasury officials planned to rush to congress another specific appropriation bill for many more buildings to be started in 1928.

Arthur Mometer

It's chilly outside and the air rather nips, but my mind roams some months on ahead, when the meadows are green and the river is warm, and the apples are luscious and red. When the clover is ripe and the bees softly hum, as they gather their sweet laden loot, when the sun has been kind and its painted a blush on flowers and trees full of fruit. And I dream of a scene that is beauty serene, a soft rolling hill and a glen, and I drink in the air that is laden with win, and drink it again and again. And I tilt back my chair as I picture the scene, and I think of the days that will come, but today's not so good, though its 30 at that, but the weather is still a bit glum.

Trade Unions Start Strike

Fifteen Hundred Members Of Four Pittsburgh Crafts Stage Walkout

HOPE TO EFFECT EARLY SETTLEMENT

(International News Service)

PITTSBURGH, Pa., Mar. 1. — Fifteen hundred members of four crafts of the Pittsburgh District Trades Union went out on strike here today when wage negotiations between union officials and employers failed. Construction work on building projects, estimated at a valuation of $100,000,000 was halted.

Members of the Structural Iron Workers, Hoisting Engineers, Steam Fitters and Cement Finishers Unions seeking increases in pay and in some instances a five day week, were notified by F. C. Reed, secretary of the Building Trades Employers' Association, that the employers would stand pat upon their offer of a continuance of the 1926 scales, but would not make any offer of increase or shorter hours.

Efforts of L. G. Hines and James A. Steese, representatives of the Department of Labor and Industry of Pennsylvania, and of Hugh D. Friel, U. S. Commissioner of Conciliation, to bring about an understanding, failed, it was announced after a conference.

legal experts now predict, also set aside the Teapot Dome lease to the Mammoth Oil company. Sinclair also will face a big loss.

More than $20,000,00 was invested by Sinclair interests following the Teapot Dome lease, government attorneys estimate. This included approximately $1,000,000 on storage tanks at the Portsmouth, N. H., navy yard, $500,000 in Wyoming development, $1,000,000 to clear title to the land and $19,000,000 for a pipe line to Freeman, Kansas.

How much of this expenditure would be lost under an adverse court decision is a matter of speculation. Because of other interests of Sinclair companies in the Wyoming field, it is said by government attorneys that Sinclair's loss probably would be small.

Senator Walsh (D) of Montana, who inaugurated the "oil scandal" investigation of 1924, and Owen J. Roberts and Atlee Pomerene, the government's attorneys, were being showered with congratulations today as a result of the court's sweeping decision.

But one note of disappointment was sounded by Fall's foes. The high court failed to specifically designate the $100,000 which Doheny sent to Fall in "the little black satchel" as a bribe.

After setting out the facts of the $100,000 payment and declaring that the whole transaction reeked of "collusion and corrupt conspiracy between him (Fall) and Doheny" the court added that "it was not necessary to show that the money transaction between Doheny and Fall constituted bribery as defined in the criminal code."

Friends of former Secretary of the Navy Edwin L. Denby found gratification in the court's decision that he took no active part in the negotiations, but the high court's one disagreement upon the evidence concerning Denby.

"We have considered the evidence, and are satisfied that the findings as to matters of fact here controverted are fully sustained, except the statement that Denby signed the contracts and leases under misapprehension and without full knowledge of the contents of the documents," the courts aid. "As to that the record requires an opposite finding."

Rev. Leichliter At Mission

The Rev. G. A. Leichliter has consented to preach and sing again tonight at the City Mission, 17 South Mercer street, this will be his last night for the present time.

An audience that more than filled ed the Mission last night was present and greatly enjoyed the service. Rev. Leichliter brought a very timely Gospel Message on the "Love of God." Rev. Leichliter sang two selections, and the special musical numbers by Mrs. W. P. Felch accompanied by Miss Lillian Sarver, were very much appreciated. Mrs. Felch sang one number by request, entitled "Nailed to the Cross." More than ten folks at the close, expressed a desire to give their hearts to Christ.

Tonight special musical numbers will be rendered by Mrs. Clifford M. Propst and Mrs. Harry E. Barnes, one number entitled "The Ivory Palaces," they will be accompanied at the piano by Miss Eloise Berquist. Rev. Leichliter will also render special solo numbers, and a fine service is again looked forward to this evening.

Mrs. Zwemer to Speak.

Members of the Missionary societies of all the churches of the city will on Friday hold an all day session in the First United Presbyterian church. It is an inter-church affair and is designed as a day of prayer for the missions of the world.

The morning session will be held from 10:30 to 11:30 a. m. Mrs. W. E. McClure will be the speaker of the occasion. The afternoon session will be held at 2 o'clock and last until 4 o'clock. The speaker of the afternoon session will be Mrs. Samuel S. Zwemer, wife of Dr. Zwemer a widely known missionary among Mohammadean peoples. She will have a message of interest for those interested in missions.

Loyal Ladies' League

Members of the Loyal Ladies' League will meet Wednesday evening, March 2, at 7:30, in the Sons of Veterans hall.

Choir to Meet

This week the choir of the First Christian church will meet for rehearsal at 8:30 p. m. Wednesday, March 2.

To Observe Ash Wednesday

In his address tomorrow evening the Rev. Philip C. Pearson, will discuss ways and means of reaping the benefits of the preaching of the bishop's crusade last week. Included will be a report of the rededication cards signed.

As many have asked for a systematic course in Bible study, all who are interested are especially requested to be present, for it is believed there are others in addition to those definitely signing for this. This idea is based on former discussions of the subject, both in pastoral calling and in organizations. This Bible study will be for both sexes, all ages. After the systematic presentation of the several subjects an after meeting will be held in the church for free discussion and the making of final arrangements. Everyone who is interested in reading the Bible from the point of view of present day scholarship, with special reference to science, and the cultivation of the inner life of devotion to God, or the spiritual life in companionship with God, is invited.

The occasion is the first day of Lent, Ash Wednesday.

The time is eight o'clock.

The service is litany, penitential office and address, with hymns, under the leadership of the choir.

Other services tomorrow will be: nine a. m., morning prayer; 9:30 a. m., litany, penitential office and holy communion.

CONGRESS FACES STRIFE WITH END OF SESSION NEAR

and Thomas W. Cunningham, a Philadelphia court clerk, on contempt charges met with general approval in the senate. All three were given two different opportunities to answer questions but both times defied the senate's power to compel testimony on what the witnesses termed as subjects not under investigation. It was a foregone conclusion the senate would order all three prosecuted for contempt.

Smith Case Pigeon-Holed.

The case of Senator-Designate Frank L. Smith, R., of Illinois, meanwhile faced a pigeon-hole death in the senate elections committee. Senator Ernst, R., of Kentucky, chairman, told International News Service that no attempt would be made to bring the case back to the floor of the senate in the few remaining days. He said Smith's certificate to the six-year term, however, would be reported to the senate "as being in the regular order." A separate report will be made at the same time on the credentials of Senator-Elect William S. Vare, R., of Pennsylvania, Ernst added, calling attention to the irregular manner in which the then Governor Gifford Pinchot "certified" the winner of Pennsylvania's senatorial campaign.

In asking the punishment of Insull, Schuyler and Cunningham, the Reed committee rendered an unanimous report, prepared by Senator Goff, R., of West Virginia. It declared it had "exceeded the limit of forbearance" in its treatment of Insull and Schuyler and had resorted to the contempt proceeding only "after every indulgence was exhausted."

Sturdy Testimony.

The Democrats were studying the testimony of Insull about his contributions to Smith's campaign fund in order to use it in fighting to unseat the Illinois senator in the seventieth congress, next December. The most significant part of Insull's testimony, they said, was his admission that he wrote a $190,000 check on June 30 last year to "repay" funds taken from the "till" of the Commonwealth Edison Company.

This occurred four days after Senator Caraway, D., of Arkansas, had openly charged Insull with spending $500,000 in the Illinois campaign. In his speech, Caraway said: "It is openly charged that being chairman of the utilities commission, the successful candidate (Smith) received enormous contributions from the heads of public utilities of the state and that Samuel Insull either individually or through his utility organization, contributed over $500,000." Four days later, Insull wrote the check repaying his utility corporation for the funds advanced to Smith.

Stop That Cold--Quick

It is said that the rapidity with which this new prescription ended his patients' colds was even a surprise to the physician who originated it. After the first dose you can actually feel your cold or grippe slipping away. The nostrils clear, nose discharges end, fever and aches are banished. Yet it contains no quinine to make the head roar or upset the stomach; no acetanilide to weaken the heart; no harmful drugs whatever. Pleasantly laxative but no griping. No weakening after effects; in fact, you brace right up. Far superior to old fashioned remedies and patent medicines. Ask for Thoxine Cold Tablets. 50c. Sold under money back guarantee of the quickest relief you ever had, by Love & Megown and Terminal Drug Store.

It is just as consistent to save money in the purchase of a funeral as anything else.

Our reasonable prices make this possible.

PROFLIGATE

ON THE basis of the present rate of increase in population and the increasing average span of life, scientists predict a population of 325,000,000 for the United States by the year 2000 and wonder how the nation will feed and house this multitude.

If the country continues to use its natural resources with as great prodigality as it has in the past, this problem for posterity may assume serious proportions. But conservation of natural resources is a problem the solving of which this generation does not propose to leave to the future.

This country each year wastes 115,000,000 tons of coal, $500,000,000 in land value, millions of dollars for purifying water sources which should not have been polluted, rivers of precious oil, and cuts down its remaining timber three times as fast as new trees grow.

Yet, in spite of all this wanton waste, it seems safe to predict that ways will be found to put a roof over and food inside of 325,000,000 people in another 73 years. The fact that the nation recognizes a need for conservation and reforestation is a healthy sign in itself. Conservation, as a national policy, was brought to the fore only two decades ago. Since then tremendous strides forward have been made, although the public is still profligate in the use of natural resources.

What is needed now is not painters of alarming pictures, but industrial leaders and other owners of natural resources who are willing to forfeit a small part of today's profit and conserve some of these resources as insurance against the future.

GOOD WILL FLIGHT DISASTER

THE danger that is constantly at hand when airplanes are manoeuvring in formation became reality in a split-second on Saturday as the four planes of the United States Army's good-will expedition to South America circled over Buenos Aires.

Almost faster than the eye could follow developments two of the great machines had locked together and begun to fall. Figures of men hurtled away from them; then came smoke, the searing vision of flames and the splintering crash as the wrecks struck the ground. Out of the accident two men emerged alive and safe. One jumped and for some reason his parachute did not open and he was killed by the fall. The fourth occupant of the planes was trapped in his pilot's seat and burned to death.

It was a terrible tragedy for these adventurers, thousands of miles from their homeland—a strange climax to a pioneer voyage that had charted routs all the way down the coast of South America to lower Chile and then had crossed the Andes for a triumphal return to the United States. The flight will continue, of course; the three remaining planes and their pilots must "carry on." That is a rule that every man in military service understands.

But disaster striking without an instant's warning has thrown a pall over an otherwise splendid accomplishment. Captain Woolsey and Lieutenant Benter were two of the best pilots in the Army service, chosen specially for this distinguished duty. It will be meet that in death they shall share the honors that this nation showers upon their comrades when this expedition is completed.

CENTENARY OF BALTIMORE AND OHIO RAILROAD

THE centenary of the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad, being observed this week with formal ceremonies in Baltimore, commemorates a pioneer enterprise of immense importance in the development of the nation.

A hundred years ago advocates of railroads were derided and discouraged, lambasted and lampooned on every side, declares the Philadelphia Inquirer. Yet a group of Maryland business men had the courage and foresight to appreciate the possibilities of this matched invention—a railroad for easy carriage and a steam engine to do the work of transportation.

Horses were dragging flange-wheeled wagons over rails at Quincy, Massachusetts, and Mauch Chunk and Honesdale, in this state, and it was being proved that a far heavier load could be hauled with the same amount of effort expended along an ordinary highway. In the "wilds" of Jersey near Hoboken the aged John Stevens was operating a home-made steam locomotive on a circular track on his estate, undismayed by the refusal of the Pennsylvania legislature to have anything to do with his plan for a line to the West that was to become the great Pennsylvania Railroad system.

Under circumstances like that it required superlative courage to project a railroad from the Chesapeake to the Ohio River and to capitalize it at $5,000,000. Yet that is what was done; and on February 28, 1827, the Maryland legislature chartered the company. It was three years before enough capital was raised to complete the first section of fourteen miles to Ellicott City. But a few years later the backers of this enterprise were celebrating the completion of a "branch" line to Washington by declaring the first railroad dividend in history. The line to the Ohio progressed at snail's pace and the last spike was not driven in the rail connection to Wheeling until Christmas Eve, 1852.

It's the man at the wheel, not the auto, that makes the trouble.

Hints and Dints

James B. Borland of the Franklin Herald is entering upon his 50th year in the newspaper business. There have been many changes in the publishing business during his long and eventful career and he is going to tell about them in a book which he is writing. We want a copy of that book, no matter what it costs, as it sure will be worth reading. There is no man in Franklin who is so near the hearts of the people as Jim Borland, and no better newspaper man ever pushed a pencil or mauled a typewriter.

Farmers and poultry raisers are viewing with alarm the rapid drop in the price of eggs; meanwhile city folks are filled with joy. It depends altogether on the point of view how you feel about it. Warm weather of the past few weeks fooled the hens into believing that spring had come, but maybe there will be plenty of cold weather before Easter and the biddies will take another rest.

Old-fashioned kids talked of the house that Jack built; moderns wonder whose Jack built it.

Report of a new invention of dry ice that "turns into gas when it melts" suggests that eventually we may be able to hook up the kitchen range with the refrigerator and run both on the same supply.

Those summerless predicters are again back on the job and they are telling us that we are going to have a cold summer. If they keep on predicting long enough, possibly we may have a cool summer sometime, but at present we haven't any more faith in them than in groundhogs.

The office of county auditor is not to be sneezed at when it comes to its being a stepping-stone to something better. One of the county auditors got a better county job and another got to be private secretary to a congressman. Who knows but that a county auditor may yet find himself in the Presidential chair.

By the time the state assembly gets all the salaries raised it ought to be ready to adjourn.

The judge congratulated a jury of all women and one man on the verdict it brought in in a recent case. Women never would stand to take orders from men, and perhaps they decided the case without consideration of what the attorneys said.

The National Credit Association has instituted this as pay-up week. Every week is pay-up week for us, and we wish our friends would get the habit, too. It's a fine way to go along.

An editor down in Georgia was waylaid and given a severe beating because he said something in his paper about bootleggers and other lawbreakers. When the press can't be muzzled by constitutional means, the thugs take the law into their own hands.

If Governor Fisher knew of the condition of the local courts and the amount of work that had to be done here, he would sign the measure that has been passed by the assembly. Lawrence county needs a second judge and will need it worse than ever as the legal work piles up. That is one measure that we favor that has been passed.

Today is the day that has a bearing on the winter to the superstitious. It's the day March comes in as a lion or a lamb. But to most of the practical-minded there won't be any good weather until after Easter, and that isn't until the 17th of April.

The Prince of Wales has inaugurated a new fashion of having very small cigarets made to smoke between dances, and like sheep the young bloods and the old ones, too, in the Kingdom are aping after the prince. We would like to hear just once of the prince doing something worth while, swearing off smoking, and see if the others there will do likewise.

"Why?" asked the judge.

"Because I can only hear with one ear.

"Oh, you'll do", replied his lordship. "We only hear one side of a case at a time."

FREAK EYESIGHT

A friend of ours is troubled with his eyes. When driving an automobile he never can see a pedestrian. When in church he is totally unable to locate the collection plate. When at home he never is able to see that his wife needs a new gown. But out on the streets, oh boy, he can see a pretty ankle two blocks!

If you ever have a black eye, we'll bet dollars to doughnuts that the first 10 men who meet you on the street will ask: "How does the other fellow look?"

Some people make a great success of doing nothing and getting nowhere.

Talking about the other fellow behind his back is about the meanest kind of "safety first".

They will tell you that few hear opportunity when it knocks at the door, but we doubt it. Most folks never let an opportunity to make a fool out of themselves go by without grabbing it.

The Postoffice Department has just brought to light an old letter to President Arthur from Bill Nye. He served as postmaster at Laramie, Wyo., and the letter is the great humorist's resignation from the "arduous duties" of the office.

In a letter he directed the President where to find everything, explaining that the postcards he had read were carefully pigeonholed apart from the unread ones.

He continued: "If Deacon Hayford does not pay up his box rent you might as well put his letters in the general delivery, and when Bob Head gets drunk and insists on a letter from one of his wives every day in the week, you can salute him through the box delivery window with an old Queen Anne tomahawk that you will find near the Etruscan water pail."

So tickled were the officials in Washington with this letter 45 years ago that they published it far and wide. To Nye's great delight an English newspaper editorially commented in shocked amazement on the ways of American postmasters.

Low gear is placed in cars for starting and traveling highways described by natives as "purty good roads".

What has become of the old-fashioned agitator who wanted the government to seize this or that public utility?

There is rest for you."

THERE'S WARNING IN THIS

It may be right at first to write it—

But eventually it has to be written

EQUAL RIGHTS

Women are now demanding a constitutional amendment giving them equal rights with men. This amendment should include:

The right to two new suits and two hats a year.

The right to stand up whenever a man enters the room.

The right to spend the hot summer days in town while hubby is away at the seashore.

The right to pay for the taxi.

The right to pay alimony.

The unsocial man has one advantage. He gets fewer germs.

Example of hypocrites: One who pretends to give a darn which side is winning in China.

The proper way to judge a man is by the size of the things he is prejudiced about.

It will be interesting when America discovers the first man great enough for a third term.

WRITES FROM CALIFORNIA.

Pittsburgh Cal., Feb. 23, 1927.
Editor News:
Dear Sir:—

Just a few lines to let you know that I am back in Pittsburgh, Calif., and working at the steel mill again. The mills haven't worked very well since January 1, but expect to start in full next week.

I suppose you've read about the rain and floods around this part of the state but we sure would have had plenty if it had rained Monday and Tuesday.

We are located on the Sacramento river and when the tide came in it held back the water so we were in danger of being flooded out. I guess California has had more than its usual supply of rain. It rained a little last night but cleared up this morning and the sun is shining bright. It is just like a spring morning back in Pennsylvania.

Before and after Christmas I spent several weeks in Los Angeles but did not meet any one from New Castle.

I attended the Notre Dame and University of California football game December 4. I had a good seat near the U. C. rooting squad but I was rooting for the Irish and nearly got licked when Notre Dame made the second touch down and final kick. The Irish were outplayed most of the game but they had two neat passes that put them over in the last two minutes of the game. That's when the U. C.'s pulled their hair. Some of them held their tickets until game time expecting to clean up, but Los Angeles isn't New York, so we bought $3.50 tickets for $1, which they expected to get $10 to $15 for. That is some bowl they have there with about 50 entrances.

New York day I went out to Pasadena and saw the tournament of roses parade. It sure was a great sight.

Well folks I'll say so long for the time being.

SOME WHERE

Some where a voice is calling me
It is calling ever so sweetly
It calls at night and in the day
I hear it not, 'tis so far away
But as I wander I will darw near
Until that sweet voice I will hear.

Then I will give an answering call
With my soul, my heart and all
And then some day we shall meet
And these two hearts as one will beat
Unite and together live happly
It is the voice of love that's calling me.

VIOLATING AUTO LAWS

City 2-28-27.

New Castle News,
City Editor.
Dear Sir:—

With your kind permission I will submit the following for your approval and consideration, and trust that you will favor with publication for the benefit of our many citizens of our own fair city, together with nearby neighbors of the many towns that surround us, and who visit us quite often to patronize our merchants of one line or another.

The subject in mind is this, that we as owners and drivers of machines, are, or should be, fully aware that the auto license punch card system for 1927 is at present writing held valid and therefore will be enforced by state patrol officers for violations stated on the cards.

Saturday evening while waiting on the Highland avenue car I personally counted 6 out of 11 machines that passed up and down, each with one headlight burning. One of the machines belonged to a place of business. The fact is that there were several of us waiting for the car, and the matter was discussed, then the thought struck me that it was about high time for a campaign of some kind to bring before our people and neighbors the need of caution this year in operating a machine.

The first thought is the newspaper. Yes, I know it costs money to tell the people of any subject, but it pays as we know, so while we are at it we have about our city an auto club. I'll lay a little bet that there is not 25 per cent of our owners and drivers here who can tell where the club is located, let alone know of any of the benefits by membership in the club. So why could the newspaper and the club not get together on this matter and if the membership rate is too high, let's open her up with a membership campaign.

Anyhow let us have a little insight in this auto club for I am just as much at sea in the workings of it as any of non-members. But I am willing to listen and learn. So let's go, and forget that traveling man stuff, that was terrible, for half of our townspeople have got every traveling man that hits town under suspicion. So trusting that I have not taken up too much space and time and thanking you for your favor in advance.

THE GAS TAX.

New Castle, Pa.
February 28, 1927.

Editor News.
Dear Sir:—

Mr. Cox, in his letter, published in this evening's News, presents about all the sound argument that one could find, in favor of an increase in the tax on gasoline. His stand in regard to our paying for road improvements as we go is undoubtedly the strongest point in favor of a tax increase. Good roads are in this day about the most important thing, for which public moneys are being expended.

In fact they are serving to carry so much of the country's life giving, and life supporting traffic; and this traffic in increasing in volume so rapidly that it leaves us no alternative but to build more and more each year. At first glance one is inclined to look at it from the stand point, which gives to the letter mentioned it's most plausable foundation. This, when boiled down is simply, the automobile owner and the automobile driver are the most benefitted by improved roads, so why should not they pay all of the cost to build and to keep in repair. There was a time when this was absolutely true. But one can not be

MULES AND AIRPLANES

Statistics are a wonderful thing. They sometimes knock our impressions sky high and seriously alter our opinion of things.

Time was when railroad traffic was considered rather dangerous but nowadays a man is safer on a pullman car than he is at home. Relatively more people die in their beds than do from train wrecks.

The same is true of airplanes.

Flying used to be very dangerous but now it is not considered so much so.

Statistics show that eight pilots lost their lives in commercial aviation last year while eighty persons were kicked to death by mules in Missouri alone. So it is more dangerous to keep a mule and to go near his business end than it is to keep an airplane.

The rear end of a mule seems to be more perilous than the front end of an airplane.

Many a man who drives a team of mules might lay this to heart. He thinks when he sees a person sailing in the air that it is a hazardous business, but after all it is not so hazardous as riding behind a mule.

A great many people are killed by automobiles in the United States but there were probably a great many more people killed by skittish horses before motor cars came into general usage, only their deaths were not recorded.

The old family horse was a great pet but he was a dangerous institution. You never could tell when he was going to take it into his head to run away.

Statistics are not handy just at present but probably as many people were injured by runaway horses as are now injured by automobiles.

When you drive an automobile the only uncertain element is yourself. When you drive a horse and buggy you are not only uncertain but the horse is uncertain.

Altogether it seems to be safer to trust your self to an airplane than to a skittish horse.

Of course there are some people who think that all horses are perfectly safe if you understand them but then there are some people who think that airplanes are just as safe.

The World AND THE Mud Puddles

AN IRON WILL.

Newspaper readers of the last generation will remember Hetty Green. Mrs. Green and Russell Sage were two of a kind. They made much monies, but spent little upon their personal affairs. The world knew after the death of Russell Sage how much wealth he had amassed. The world have never known, nor does it know how much monies were piled up by Hetty Green beyond the fact that when she died in 1916, the inventories filed in the State of Vermont, showed an appraisal of more than sixty million dollars. Her estate, however was left in trust to be held so for ten years after her death. The ten years expired last July, and it has just been disclosed that the Trustees then distributed the estate to her two children, Colonel H. R. Green and Mrs. Matthew Astor Wilks in even division, but what the amount of this division was in dollars and cents is not known as there was no legal necessity for telling, and the Trustees and the beneficiaries were directed to keep it secret. The actual amount of wealth will probably not be known until the death of one of these children.

Hetty Green was the most close mouthed of any financial figure that this country has ever known. She scorned the overtures of Society, and lived a very simple life in a little three room flat on Bloomfield St., Hoboken, reported to have been rented to her for $30.00 a month. The provisions of her will, by which she protected the amount of it from the scrutiny of the Court read as follows:

"I direct that the Trustees named in this, my last will and testament shall not be required to file an inventory of appraisement, nor shall either of them be required to give bond or other security, nor shall either of them be required to account in or to be subjected to the jurisdiction of the Probate Court."

Her son and daughter, however, have not lived in the manner of their mother. Hetty Green's daughter, Mrs. Wilks, was married in that same modest Hoboken apartment in 1909. She now has an apartment at 933 Fifth avenue, at a cost of $12,000 a year, paying more in a day than her mother did in a month. An incessant traveler Mrs. Wilks spends very little time here. On her travels she always uses a private car. She is in Canada several months of the year.

Colonel Green also is more lavish than his mother. He rents by the year a luxurious apartment at the Hotel Wallorf-Astoria, which he seldom occupies and then only for brief period. At present he is living on board his houseboat "Colonel" a Star Island, Miami Beach, Florida. He spends much of his time in Texas, where he is virtually the sole owner of the Texas Midland railroad and director of the American Exchange National Bank. He has owned a steam yacht, which, it was said, cost him $50,000 a year to keep. He owns another summer estate in South Dartmouth, Mass.

MARCH.

It's a roughwind and an angry sky
And a littlebit weary of them and I,
But March may bluster and March may blow
When its las day comes it will have to go

The desolut trees are bowed with sleet
And cold and bare is our little stree,
It is hard to believe where now all is glom
In a few weks more will the tulips bloom.

There are furrows of ice on the pans bed,
And Marchmay howl that the rose is dad,
And if March were master of all thims here
Never again would a rose appear.

I am tired of the winter, I'm tired of the snow,
I am tired of the blustering winds which blow,
But I know there are only a few days more
For March to bang at my cottage door

So go to it March to your heart's conten
In a little while will your strength be sent.
For your reign is brief and the tulips wait
The happie day when you'll abdicate

POEMS-HOPE

BY CHARLES HANSON TOWNE

"In Time of the Breaking of Nations," by Thomas Hardy.

It is inevitable, I think, that Hardy, great novelist though he is, will come to be remembered in the future as a true poet also. "The Dynasts" is a huge work of tremendous significance; and in his brief, piercing lyrics he has, during the past decade, achieved greatness. This is not astonishing when one recalls the poetry of his earliest prose — descriptions shot with magic, revealing the sensitive artist who, in his later years, was to emerge in his full power. He is like a rose that opened late. His is the wonder of a clear star, shining steadily high above the hills. An austere beauty gleams in every line he wites.

I

Only a man harrowing clods
In a slow silent walk,
With an old horse that stumbles and nods
Half asleep as they stalk.

II

Only the smoke without flame
From the heaps of couch grass
Yet this will go on just the same
Tho' dynasties pass.

III

Yonder a maid and her wight
Come whisperings by:
War's annals will fade into night
Ere their story die.

Captain Kieb Speaks Tonight

Life Saver To Make Address At New Castle Y. M. C. A.

Captain William Kieb of the American Red Cross Life Saving Corps of Washington, D. C., will be the principal speaker at the meeting of the Castle Aquatic Club scheduled for the Y. M. C. A. at 8 o'clock tonight.

Captain Kieb spent the day at New Wilmington and Westminster College where he addressed the students of the United Presbyterian school at the chapel exercises held this morning. This afternoon the students were given demonstrations and exhibitions in swimming at the new fine swimming pool only recently installed at the school.

The meeting tonight at the Y. M. C. A. is open to the public and anyone who is interested in swimming will be interested in the fine talk that the traveling representative of the Red Cross has prepared for them.

Boy Scouts See Demonstration Of Life Saving Work

A swimming exhibition was given in the Y. M. C. A. pool Monday evening by the Red Cross. The features of the aquatic performance were mainly life saving and resuscitation. This was held in unision with the Boy Scouts Training Course.

Many members of the course were present, including a large number of them from Ellwood City. This was an exhibition of the possibilities on the part of Captain Kieb and Jack Herbert. It was of much benefit to all.

The Y. M. C. A. is to be thanked for this as they donated their pool to the Red Cross, so that the exhibition could be held.

The next meeting of the Training School will be held at the Carnegie auditorium for the New Castle members, Monday evening, March 7. A lunch will be served.

quite so certain that it is even in a measure true at this date. Even if we disregard the fact that the persons who benefit directly from good roads by either owning an automobile or by being a member of a family some other member of which owns one.

Every thinking person will agree that improved roads serve greatly to reduce the cost of transportation, by speeding it up, by reducing the wear and tear on the carrier, and in a degree the power cost. (The term "degree" is used because in the opinion of the writer, the last item cited, is small in comparison to the others). And it naturally follows that this lower cost is ultimately passed on to the consumer of goods in almost every line of merchandise. Is it not logical then to reason that road improvement, due to its importance, and the urgency of getting it done at once should not to a greater extent be financed from general taxes rather than to be saddled entirely onto the owners of automobiles.

The latter method would not be so bad if it effected only the owners of commercial vehicles, as these could to some extent pass the added expense on to their customers. But the small car owner is the fellow who feels it most. The fellow who depends upon the family fliver for week-end recreation.

This fellow spends the week at shop or office and on Saturday and Sunday drives form forty to one hundred and fifty miles. Taking the latter as his year round average, he drives less than ten thousand miles per year, and there are a lot of them who's yearly total comes nearer three thousand miles. He has in any case to pay at least $10 for his car registration, and another dollar for a driver's card just the same as the fellow who owns a small car which is used for some sort of sales work, and goes on an average of three thousand miles each month. Eleven, twelve or fifteen dollars becomes a much smaller item when distributed over some thirty six thousand odd miles in a year's time than when squeezed down to cover around two or three thousand. And before the tax boosters can cause these little fellows to become enthusiastic about digging down in their jeans for to pay an added cent to each fifteen to twenty miles they drive, even though it is to be used to build concrete roads, there must be something said about reducing the registration fees on cars used privately for carrying passengers. There is no question, if the automobile owners must pay for the roads, that the fairest means of taxing them would be by means of a tax on gasoline. Then the fellow who used the road more would pay more; the larger and heavier car would also consume more gasoline than the small ones and their respective owner pay in proportion.

About three years ago the first law taxing gasoline was passed in Ohio and by the same act the registration fees for all cars was greatly reduced. This act was and is favored by every thinking motorist in the state. And there is very little doubt that was our legislature to reduce the present high registration fees, that there would be very little complaint, to adding even two cents additional tax on gasoline. But as long as it costs the fliver owner $10 each year for registration, a dollar for license, and we keep him in fear all the time of having a law clapped on him compelling him to carry liability insurance, at what ever cost is required to enable the insurance company to take all the risk for all the wild and reckless drivers in the state, don't be surprised should some of them act slightly peeved when a boost in the gas tax is mentioned.

"JERRY TARBOT" MAY BE SHARON MAN IS BELIEF

SHARON, Mar. 1.—Mrs. Sue Seiple, 163 North Oakland avenue, wife of Harry S. Seiple, an employe of the Bell Telephone Company, left last night for Washington, D. C., where she will appear Tuesday morning before a congressional committee to tell them that she has identified Jerry Tarbot, the mystery veteran of the American Expeditionary Forces, a victim of amnesia caused by shell shock during the World War, as Howard F. Noble formerly of Sharon.

Mrs. Seiple, who made the identification from a newspaper picture of Tarbot, is positive that Tarbot and Noble are one and the same. She received a message last night from Federal officials in Pittsburgh to appear in Washington tomorrow, as congress is anxious to clear up the mystery surrounding Tarbot before adjournment on Friday, if possible.

Youngest Professionals In Trapping Earn $12.55

(COUNT IT UP—EVERY ITEM LISTED.)

Felix and Jean Landis, With a Day's Catch.

Exclusive Central Press Dispatch to New Castle News.

EL CAJON, Calif., March 1.—Meet Landis and Landis not incorporated.

They are California's youngest professional hunters and trappers. For a profit they hunt and trap coyotes, wildcats, coons and—skunks.

The senior member of the firm is Felix, aged 10. His co-partner signs her name (occasionally) "Jean." She admits eight annums.

Round about the Landis ranch on the outskirts of this little town, rabbits have been on the increase during the last two or three years, due to legal protection. As the rabbits become more numerous, coyotes and other predatory animals likewise increased in frequency.

Market Prices Go Upward.

Concurrently, fur prices rose, which offered a greater inducement to prospective trappers.

"So" says Felix, "Jean and I decided to set out some traps."

Accordingly they set out ten traps. Once each day they "go the rounds" to see what their steel "meal tickets" have gathered in.

During a recent vacation this was their catch:

One coyote, skin worth	$ 4.50
One wild cat, skin worth	2.50
One coon, skin worth	4.00
One ordinary skunk skin worth	.75
One extraordinary skunk skin worth	.80
Total	$12.55

What worries the partners most is their lack of a "skinning shed" where they may prepare the skins for market. Their father who is county farm adviser, moved in that direction at the outset but a "smelly" incident deterred him.

Felix and Jean brought their first skunk home and deposited him on the front porch. Thereafter for nearly three weeks the family entered and departed via the back door only. Landis Sr. does not now trust the children's judgment!

But the hunter and trapper make their rounds daily taking nearly three hours for the journey. They do not profit every day but they lug their rifles along for an occasional shot at a rabbit. Then comes a big day and they bring in a wildcat or a coyote.

A Sure Way To End Dandruff

There is one sure way that has never failed to remove dandruff at once, and that is to dissolve it, then you destroy it entirely. To do this, just get about four ounces of plain, ordinary liquid arvon from any drug store (this is all you will need), apply it at night when retiring; use enough to moisten the scalp and rub it in gently with the finger tips.

By morning, most if not all, of your dandruff will be gone, and two or three more applications will completely dissolve and entirely destroy every single sign and trace of it, no matter how much dandruff you may have.

You will find, too, all itching and digging of the scalp will stop instantly, and your hair will be fluffy, lustrous, glossy, silky and soft, and look and feel a hundred times better.

ADULT CLASSES HAVE MEETING

Attorney W. Walter Braham Is Speaker—Other News Notes Of Seventh Ward

About 65 were present at the special meeting of the Adult Bible classes of the Mahoning Presbyterian church in the church Sunday school room Monday evening. Members of classes taught by Mrs. L. A. More, Mrs. F. W. Guy and Attorney C. A. Patterson were present. Attorney and Mrs. W. Walter Braham were special guests.

A brief meeting was conducted by C. A. Patterson, superintendent of the Sabbath school. It is planned to have a meeting of these adult classes each month on the last Monday evening of the month.

Attorney W. Walter Braham was the speaker of the evening, giving a most interesting talk on the subject, "The Language and Imagery of the Bible," stating that no man is educated that does not have some knowledge of the language, imagery, character and precepts of the Bible. Mentioning the names of Daniel Webster, James G. Blaine, Daniel O'Connell and other great orators and how they used quotations from the Bible; likewise poets, telling interesting allegories, illustrating various points. His talk was very interesting and pleasing.

After the program a social time was enjoyed with social chat. At a seasonable hour light refreshments were served by a committee from the Men's Bible class.

COMMITTEE MEETING

The general committee for the union lodge meeting of Auxiliaries to Railroad Brotherhoods will have a meeting Wednesday at the home of Mrs. W. J. Klingensmith on North Cedar street. The meeting is called for seven o'clock.

GIRL SCOUTS

Monday evening the Eagle troop, Girl Scouts, had their weekly meeting in the Mahoning school. The girls opened their meeting with the horseshoe formation. Color bearer, Jane Leicht. Color guards, Dorothy Johnston and Edith Carnes. After the meeting Miss Wilson, captain of the troop, taught the girls a new game.

A basketball game was a feature of the evening. The game played was between the Girl Scout team and East Side girls' team. The Girl Scouts were winners by three points. Final score was 20 to 17 in favor of the Scouts. Miller played a good game for the East Side team and Foster starred for the winning team. This was the second time these teams have played. The Girl Scouts were winners both times.

The line-up:

Girl Scouts 20		East Side 17
Wettich	F.	Miller
Foster	F.	Mieman
Stickle	C.	Ferrie
McAuley	S. C.	Lombardo
Smith	G.	Mort

Make Report On Mansion Project

Matter Of Building New Home For Governor Is Before Senate

OTHER ACTION IN STATE LEGISLATURE

By WILLIAM B. BROWN
International News Service Staff Correspondent

HARRISBURG, Pa., Mar. 1 — Only one minor bill is listed for final action in the session of the senate which began at 11 o'clock today. Thirteen bills were reported from committee and passed to the second reading calendar last night for action today.

Bills on that calendar today included that of Woodward, Philadelphia which would permit counties, cities, boroughs, towns and townships to place their employes in the state retirement fund. The bill provides the methods for their entrance and the manner in which payment of the annual premium shall be made.

The appropriation bill providing $500,000 for a new executive mansion and creating a commission to handle the details of the site acquired and building also was reported from committee for action today.

In a short session last night the senate passed without a dissenting vote the joint resolution proposing an amendment to the constitution for another $50,000,000 road bond issue. It now goes to the house. At the same time a bill was introduced by Senator Buckman, Bucks, sponsor of the resolution to provide conditions of the issuance if approved at this session and by the voters.

Among the four bills sent back to committee was that of Pfischner, Allegheny, which would have permitted the Highway Department to build sidewalks in sections where they were deemed necessary.

In the absence of Senator Culbertson, the sponsor, the bill fixing the salary of sheriffs in seventh class counties at $3,000 was recommitted.

The Greater Pittsburgh amendment to the constitution also was returned to committee to permit a public hearing today.

New bills introduced last night included:

North, Jefferson, requiring drug stores to obtain permits from the state alcohol permit board before selling alcohol.

Kunkle, Westmoreland had two bills designed to throw greater safeguards about bituminous mining.

Schantz, Lehigh, repealing the third class city registration act.

Woodward, Philadelphia, providing for permanent registration in first class cities.

Woodward, Philadelphia, making the maximum compensation payment $15,000 a week and providing that employes shall pay one third of the annual premiums levied for their insurance.

Steel, Northumberland, extending the jurisdiction of borough planning commissions to three miles beyond the legal limits of the town.

Gelder, Susquehanna, making the Highway Department liable for the building of all bridges over 400 feet in length on state highways in sixth, seventh and eighth class counties.

Mrs. Vare, Philadelphia, introduced a resolution proposing an amendment to the constitution which would permit the state to appropriate money for old age pension purposes. A similar resolution passed the last session.

Eve was so called because she brought Adam's perfect day to an end.

Policeman Adonis Commits Suicide

SOUTH NYACK, N. Y. March 1—Leroy Waters, 25, police lieutenant, killed himself today because he was too handsome.

Women were attracted to Lieut. Waters because of his good looks.

"Women pestered me" he said just before he died. "No use trying to get away from them."

Last Tuesday he dropped from sight. Today he came home and sent a bullet from his service revolver into his brain because he was ashamed and felt that he was not fit to be the father of the child soon to be born.

Mrs. Waters declared she scolded him on his return today and blamed his absence on his infatuation for "Anne" the name signed to a number of love notes which she found in his absence.

He went upstairs and a short time later she heard a pistol shot. She found him dying and beside him was a note which read:

"I guess I'm better off dead as I do nothing but get in debt. Goodby. Roy.

"I am not fit to be the father of our baby. I do love you after all but it is better for me to go.

"Love and good luck."

Senate Drys Push Drive To Place Enforcement In Hands Of Civil Service

Seek To Install Administrative Efficiency In New Measure

Cloture Adopted On New Dry Issue; Treasury Officials Active Heads

By LAWRENCE SULLIVAN
International News Service Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON, March 1—Flushed by a major victory for prohibition on their cloture petition, senate drys pushed forward with ruthless determination today in their fight for reorganization of the enforcement unit under the civil service code.

The Anti-Saloon league looks upon the measure as the most vital implantation of teeth in the dry act since passage of the Volstead act six years ago.

By removing prohibition appointments from the category of political patronage, sponsors of the measure assert, administrative efficiency will be increased, temptations removed from the path of field agents and the whole structure of the enforcement unit coordinated for maximum results.

The new force, all selected under civil service rules, would be administered by a commissioner of prohibition, under the secretary of the treasury. The treasury always has had the dry law administration as one of its duties, but heretofore it has been handled as a side line, partly by the customs bureau and partly by the internal revenue bureau.

The crucial parliamentary struggle incident to the last phase of the senate fight drew to the galleries the field marshals of the dry legions. Gen. Lincoln C. Andrews, grand titan of enforcement; Roy A. Haynes, prohibition commisisoner, and Wayne B. Wheeler, generalissimo of the Anti-Saloon league, were among the most interested spectators at the death struggle of the languishing wet filibuster.

Adopt Cloture.

Republican insurgents from the dry country joined hands with Democrats and administration supporters to clamp on the cloture rule. They rolled over the wet bloc by the startling margin of one vote, 55 to 27, on a two-thirds proposition—and that with the help of three avowed wet Democrats.

The cloture roll call, which came only after every possible parliamentary maneuver to prevent a vote had been frustrated, placed the measure irrevocably before the senate for final action.

Both camps were jubilant over the test of strength, the wets rejoicing that without the cloture votes of Senators Copeland of New York, Walsh of Massachusetts and Hawes of Missouri, all Democrats and wets, the bill never could have got through the filibustered legislative jam; and the dry found votes to spare in a roll call on a parliamentary situation which turned out for the reorganization bill 70 to 12.

FIREMEN ANSWER ALARM FOR BLAZE IN AUTO TRUCK

City firemen were called to a place west of Harbor street and in the rear of the old McCleary property last evening about 7:55 o'clock by an alarm from box 69. There had been a fire in the seat of a truck belonging to Carl Rohrer and Company, probably caused by a cigaret or cigar. The fire was out when the firemen arrived at the scene. The loss was slight.

Special Music By Mr. And Mrs. Carlson At Epworth Church

SIDNEY CARLSON.

MRS. CARLSON.

The evangelistic services at the Epworth M. E. churh started the second week with a deepening interest and the audience on Monday evening was large.

The sermons thus far have been upon the essentials of religion, avoiding the controversal and secondary, and the question has been "What are the Spiritual Needs of the Church and its Constituency?"

Dr. Maxwell preached last evening on "Forgiveness," the prodical son being the background for his remarks. Forgivenes is not a change in God in his attiude toward man but a change in the heart of man. Three necessary conditions to obtain forgiveness, repentance, confession and faith.

Mr. Carlson sang "Pharisee and Publican" with great feeling. Mrs. Carlson's offortory number on the organ was "Evening Song." This evening Mr. Carlson will sing "How Beautiful Upon the Mountains" and Mrs. Carlson's number on the organ will be "Melody."

The chorus choir is augmented to many voices and gives special selections every evening which is most pleasing. Mr. and Mrs. Carlson are exceptional musicians.

Mr. Carlson has an unusual voice and rarely is such a splendid soloist heard in New Castle. Mrs. Carlson in obligato accompaniment has contributed quality to the beauty and excellence of the music. Mrs. Carlson will be at the organ this evening.

Dr. Maxwell will preach this evening upon the "World's Greatest Battle."

I Invite Every Weak, Rundown Man Or Woman To Accept This Free Offer

I am now at Eckerd's Cut Rate Store to Present Every Sufferer a Liberal Test Treatment of the Great New Health Builder, Dreco.

Thousands claim it brought prompt relief from stomach distress, rheumatism, weak kidneys, headaches, liver complaints, nervousness, catarrh and constipation, builds up strength, promotes sound refreshing sleep and increases the appetite. Let me prove it by a free trial treatment.

This is an invitation you can't afford to ignore. It'll tell you why. I am going to give you free a test treatment that will tone you up and put an end to all chances of indigestion, rheumatism and constipation, catarrh and kindred ills.

The treatment of which William Branson said, "It is the only thing that eased my stomach and stopped the gas, wiped away stomach troubles and put strength and vitality into my blood."

A highly efficient remedy made from roots, herbs, barks, leaves and a few other good things for the nerves, blood, stomach, kidneys and bowels.

You may be starving your blood in the midst of plenty. It isn't how much you eat that counts, but it's how you digest the food you eat.

You cannot get steam out of water without fire, you can't get brain power, nerve force, and red blood corpuscles out of food without digestion.

Thousands lack sufficient vital force and don't know why. They think they need a tonic, a vacation or a change of scenery, but they don't. It's old digestion that is the matter with them and six days of my Dreco treatment will prove it. They don't get the strength out of their food. It's like running corn through a mill with the rollers too wide apart, the corn goes through, but the mill doesn't grind.

Don't Think You Must Have a Pain to Have Indigestion.

Lack of flesh, too much fat, pimples, blotches, sallow complexion, lack of nerve force, impoverished blood, sleeplessness, weak brain power, dizzy spells, spots floating before the eyes, may all be due to faulty digestive process either in the stomach or the bowels.

Take my Dreco treatment for a week and find out how your digestive organs are working. If it helps you greatly, gives you more force, strength and brain power, you may set it down that your liver and bowels were not doing their duty.

Only yesterday your head may have felt dull and heavy, you had the "blues" were cross, nervous or irritable, everything seemed to go wrong, and you couldn't tell why.

It's ten to one it was old dispepsia slyly getting in his work, not enough to cause you pain, but just enough to dull your brain, rob you of your vitality, upset your liver and deplete your nerve force. Maybe you don't thing so, but try my Dreco treatment and see if it doesn't change "blues" to a cherry red, make the old world laugh in a merry glee, and put new vigor and vim into your life again.

Test This Treatment Free

Mr. Sufferer, have you ever heard of the wonderful remedy that talks, that really tells you itself what it can do, that's Dreco. Five minutes after you take it it begins to unfold its virtues, and it will, by actual demonstration, unfold to you more in regard to its merits overnight than I could probably make you believe if I wrote ten books as large as the dictionary.

Lewis A. Todd, the traveling salesman, had stomach trouble so bad he practically had to live on liquid foods. He couldn't even eat vegetables without suffering terrible pains. He took the Dreco treatment and can now eat anything he wants without distress whatever—sounds like a miracle? Well, we have Mr. Todd's own signed statement to that effect.

C. L. Matlick, the B. & O. conductor, says he had rheumatism so bad he had to use a cane to get around at all. On his fourth week of the Dreco treatment he says "I am now feeling fine, have thrown away my cane." These are only two out of hundreds, yes thousands.

"Words cannot tell how glad we are for Dreco," declares Mrs. Tressa Copley. "The first week fixed me up," says Walter F. Dixon, "I am a changed man now," stated Rev. Joseph L. Butler.

You may know some of these people, or somebody who knows them. I'll send you their full address if you want them, so that you can find out about my Dreco treatment and the wonders it has wrought.

Probably you are now thinking whether all this can be true; stop it. Come at once to Eckerd's Cut Rate Store and ask for the Dreco man; I will give you absolutely free, a liberal test of the Dreco treatment. This offer is open to every man and woman in this city and vicinity. There are no ifs, ands or buts attached to it, except that you come early before the generous supply of free treatments have been used. You don't have to buy anything if you don't want to, all I ask is that you step in and test this wonderful treatment and see for yourself what it can do for you. So please come as early as possible.

THIS COUPON

Entitles You To A FREE TEST OF THE DRECO TREATMENT When Presented To The Dreco Expert At Eckerd's Cut Rate Store.

New Playgrounds Are Advocated By Club Federation

Council hase received recommendations from the Federation of Women's clubs, advocating four new playgrounds, tennis courts at all playgrounds, a street shower in Scioto street and a wading pool at the West Side.

The club urges that playgrounds be made at Neshannock avenue, base of Rural avenue; Wallace hollow; Sheep Hill and near the Arthur McGill school. Tennis courts are urged at every play ground in the city.

There is a small stream of water which flows through the West Side playground, rear of the Smithfield street fire department and a wading pool is advocated. A street shower is advocated for Scioto stret.

The club also recommends that trees which the club will purchase be planted at the different playgrounds.

Slight Accidents Are Reported Here

H. G. Lutz of East Washington street reported Monday that a Chevrolet coupe being driven west on East Washington street at Beckford street, hit a telphone pole and was badly damaged. The police answering the call found that a man named McPhillips with his wife and children had been riding in the car at the time of the accident but had escaped injury.

John Huff of R. D. No. 1, New Wilmington, reported Monday that while he was driving west on East North street at East street that a car going north on East street hit and damaged his machine.

Gerson's Coupe Is Found In Florida

Four passenger coupe of Jack Gerson which was stolen in Pittsburgh the first of February while in charge of Charles Andur manager of the Neiman store here has been located in a garage in Miami, Fla., according to the message received by Jack Gerson the owner. It appears that whoever stole the car also purchased a new tire before starting on the trip to Miami and gave a check for $50 in payment, using the name of a local man. The car according to the report received by Mr. Gerson is in good shape. He states that the matter is now in the hands of the insurance people for adjustment.

Mr. Gerson loaned the car to Mr. Andur while in Boston and it was taken while the latter was in Pittsburgh.

Wilson Speaks To Members of Lion's Club At Noon

Lucius E. Wilson of The General Investment company of Chicago, now employed at the Scottish Rite Cathedral, gave a short talk on "The Cathedral as a Community Enterprise" before the members of the Lions club at the weekly noonday meeting on Tuesday, March 1, at the Elk's Club.

Mr. Wilson stressed the Cathedral as a cultural center of the city and how it would take an important part in the future development of the city. He was accompanied by Mr. John H. Schenk of Chicago and Howard B. Richards of this city.

Following Mr. Wilson's talk a short business meeting was held.

George Washington University Head Offers Resignation

(International News Service)

WASHINGTON, March 1.—Dr. William Mather Lewis, president of George Washington university, submitted his resignation to the board of directors today and will accept the presidency of Lafayette college, Easton, Pa., it was learned here.

Announcement of the change is expected to follow a board meeting late this afternoon.

FOR Sour Stomach PHILLIPS' Milk of Magnesia

Hereafter instead of soda take a little "Phillips Milk of Magnesia" in water any time for indigestion or sour, acid, gassy stomach, and relief will come instantly.

Better Than Soda

For fifty years genuine "Phillips Milk of Magnesia" has been prescribed by physicians because it overcomes three times as much acid in the stomach as a saturated solution of bicarbonate of soda, leaving the stomach sweet and free from all gases. Besides, it neutralizes acid fermentations in the bowels and gently urges this souring waste from the system without purging. It is far more pleasant to take than soda.

Try a 25c Bottle

Insist upon "Phillips". Twenty-five cent and fifty cent bottles, any drug-store. "Milk of Magnesia" has been the U. S. Registered Trade Mark of The Charles H. Phillips Chemical Company and its predecessor Charles H. Phillips since 1875.

New Castle People Lease Jordan Block Out At Harlansburg

Mr. And Mrs. W. W. Seh To Conduct Business In Village And Entertain Tourists

Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Seh of this city yesterday signed a five-year lease with Nettie Jordan of Harlansburg for her store property and dwelling located in the village of Harlansburg, at the northeast intersection of the New Castle-Slippery Rock road and the Perry Highway.

The property consists of a large brick storeroom and dwelling. It was formerly occupied by John Jordan, a pioneer merchant of Harlansburg, who began the mercantile business there over 50 years ago. Upon his death he was succeeded by his son, Spurgeon Jordan, who died a number of years ago, since which time his widow, Mrs. Nettie Jordan, has been in charge.

Mrs. Jordan expects to sell her store stock between now and the first of April, when Mr. and Mrs. Seh will take charge. They expect to run a store, restaurant and maintain rooms for tourists. Mrs. Seh understands this business thoroughly. She was formerly superintendent of the Y. W. C. A. cafeteria in this city, and later proprietor of the Ever Ready Inn on North Mercer street.

Mr. and Mrs. Seh will supply a long-felt need in Harlansburg in the operation of a stopping place for tourists, both the Perry Highway and the New Castle-Slippery Rock road being main arteries of travel. They will also enjoy the patronage of many friends in this city, who are familiar with Mrs. Seh's cuisine and well-known abilities as a hostess.

Mrs. Jordan, who retires from business, will remain in Harlansburg, having secured rooms with Mr. and Mrs. Seh.

Andrew Park Gets Promotion

Westminster College Graduate Becomes First Assistant District Attorney In Allegheny Co.

(International News Service)

PITTSBURGH, Pa., March 1.—Andrew T. Park fourth assistant district attorney, was promoted to first assitant, succeeding Congressman Harry Estep, by District Attorney Samuel H. Gardner today. His salary is increased from $4,500 to $6,500 a year.

Park attended Westminster college and coached athletics there from 1914 to 1916. He became associated with the district attorney's office in 1922.

Daugherty-Miller Case About Over

By DAVID P. SENTER.
International News Service Staff Correspondent

NEW YORK, March 1.—With the Daugherty-Miller case slated to go to the jury this afternoon U. S. Attorney Emory R. Buckner concluding his summation at the conspiracy trial today called on the jury to "convict Thomas W. Miller, former alien property custodian within 15 minutes."

"It should only take you 15 minutes to convict Miller but of course it will take you a bit longer to convict Harry M. Daugherty former attorney general" aserted Buckner "Daugherty's case is different because he had a Jess W. Smith, confidential man and bagman."

The defendants are charged with sharing in a $391,000 fee paid to the late John T. King, Connecticut politician by Richard Merton, German Industrialist, for puting through a $7,000,000 calim to war-seized property.

A Mother, Her Child, and One Dime!

Easy to Keep the System Sweet at Any Age

Many people who never have to take a laxative eat a candy cascaret now and then. Do you know why?

They have found that cascara sweetens the whole system—brings an immaculacy of person that means everything. It prevents bodily chemistry from ever making one unconsciously offensive to others. And what a perfect regulator of the bowels!

Salts affect the lining of the bowels. Mineral oils leave a coating that the blood must carry off through the pores. How much better to cascarize the system, and cause the bowels to expel everything by normal muscular contraction! To say nothing of the cleaner, sweeter condition that lasts for days—a wholesome condition that makes the use of deodorants quite unnecessary in January or July! Men and women whose years have brought on sluggishness often find that a cascaret only once a week is all the tonic they needed.

Cascara is splendid for children, too, and they love the taste of this candy laxative which every drug store has for 10c and 25c.

"HOW INNOCENT a drug can be—and how helpful! I'm done with purgatives that leave even a child's system so acid you can detect it in the perspiration. A little cascara is a perfect sweetener, and my boy and I both love the candy—went into this matter quite thoroughly as we wanted to give the people back home the real facts. We never deal in anything but facts when writing these letters back home. The train leaving Key West that evening was a through New York train and carried about 18 cars. It had a diner on it and one could get served after waiting a couple of hours. We arrived at Miami at 10 o'clock that night and we remained in that city Friday night and Saturday and then left on Sunday morning at 8 o'clock by bus for St. Petersburg. We traveled 338 miles that day and it was a wonderful ride, but rough at times. We traveled over 70 miles of toll road owned by "Fingy" Conners, a newspaper publisher of Buffalo. It is a much shorter route from Miami to St. Petersburg and the toll is $5.50 for busses and $1.50 for touring cars. This road was intended to be used to develop the land through which it passes, I was informed. There was much traffic on it and it must be a money maker. There are many wrecks between Miami and St. Petersburg and most of them are real estate wrecks. They laid out everything into subdivisions and it would take a submarine to locate some of the land. There are enough lots staked out in Florida to give one to millions of people and some of them that could have been sold at fabulous prices a year ago cannot be sold at any price now. Prices will be better for some of these lots some day, but they will never be like they were in boom times. We arrived at St. Petersburg at 10 o'clock Sunday night and the first persons we met at the Suawanee hotel, where we are staying, were Mr. and Mrs. Walter Reynolds of New Castle. There are many New Castle people here. On Monday morning as we were taking a stroll on the street we met Louis B. Round, czar of the P. & O. Electric company in New Castle. Mr. Round is here for his health for some weeks. Mr. Round is one of the live wires in New Castle and has many public jobs of a strenuous nature piled onto his willing shoulders and the result is that he has been working too hard and has to have a bit of rest. New Castle would miss Louie Round and the writer considers him one of his dearest friend and a real booster for dear old New Castle. If we only had a hundred Louies. We also met Rex Patch on Monday. Mr. and Mrs. Patch and daughter Dorothy and son Rex are here for some weeks. Mrs. J. A. Wright of New Castle is with them. Rex also is a booster for New Castle.

Mr. Rentz At Sunday Meeting In Tampa, Fla.

We were interviewed by three newspaper reporters on Monday and the principal thing they want to know is how we like Petersburg. It sure is a wonderful place. The hotels are all full here now. The Chamber of Commerce spends thousands of dollars to make it comfortable for tourists here. There are hundreds of places where tourists are entertained with games and amusements. All kinds of games, such as roque, lawn bowling, quoits, tennis, horse shoe pitching (some make as high as 40 ringers without missing), shuffle board, baseball and many others. Stands are erected for the spectators and no charge is made for the privilege of playing or looking on. Some great tournaments take place every day.

Everything possible is done here to make the people comfortable. Most of the sidewalks are 20 feet wide and ten feet of this space is taken up with comfortable benches for people to sit on. Thousands sit on them in the sun every day and watch the people go by. This is a good stunt. If you want to see any one, just sit down on a bench and wait and he or she will be along some time.

This is a great church city. Two sessions of church are held every Sunday morning at 9 and 11 and then thousands do not get in. Louie Round tried to get into three churches last Sunday and failed in all as the crowds were too big. We are going to wait to go to church until we get back to New Castle where the rush isn't so great to go to church.

On Tuesday, Mr. and Mrs. Rex Patch, Mrs. J. A. Wright and Louie Round and the writer's better half and himself went to Tampa for the day and among other things we saw and did was to go to hear Billy Sunday, who is holding a revival here in a huge tabernacle which holds five thousand sinners. Rodeheaver was there with his trombone and the old familiar tin pans for the collection were also there. After all the small pans were passed the contents were put into dish pans at several points in the hall. About a peck of silver coins were dashed into the dish pan right back of us and we thought it was a slip at the Red Jacket furnace in New Castle by the rattle it made. We got very nervous at hearing this of course. Bill started off with the familiar "When I start I go right after the devil and I have a good show and you should contribute abundantly to the cause." Mr. Sunday looks about as he did when he was in New Castle and while waiting to preach he couldn't keep his body or hands still a second. He seemed very nervous and the least cough or squawk of a baby sets his nerves off.

On Monday night of this week a drive for ONE HUNDRED THOUSAND DOLLARS FOR THE LOCAL CHAMBER OF COMMERCE was started here with a dinner attended by 1500 boosters. They thought they had some crowd. The dinner was a cold one and everything was on the tables when the people went in and there wasn't even hot coffee. It was a different dinner than the one served at the Chamber of Commerce dinner in New Castle. But the people did not attend this dinner to eat. They raised FORTY THOUSAND DOLLARS IN LESS THAN AN HOUR and had by this time have raised the rest of the hundred thousand. Such enthusiasm, my countrymen! Al Lang, ex-mayor of St. Petersburg and the leader in all civic activities, was in charge of this drive. It has been my great pleasure to have the acquaintance of Mr. Lang for over 30 years. He had not seen me in 30 and he knew me and called me by name as soon as he laid his eyes on me. I also knew him. We are both looking quite a bit older since we met over 30 years ago. Mr. Lang is also known to many other New Castle people. He is a great booster and no road is too long for him when it comes to doing something for St. Petersburg. It is an inspiration to know men like him. The Chamber of Commerce spends thousands of dollars to advertise St. Petersburg in the east. It takes money to get favorable advertising, but the wrong kind that does cities no good can be had for less than the asking. New Castle could spend a hundred thousand dollars for advertising purposes in magazines and trade journals with profit. New Castle is the greatest manufacturing city in the world, but the outside people do not know it. Chain stores know what a good burg New Castle is, however.

St. Petersburg has about 48,000 permanent population, some less than New Castle. There are no big industries here and the business is mostly entertaining tourists. A wonderful spirit of cooperation exists here. The largest contribution to the Chamber of Commerce fund was $6,000 by the Hotel Association. Quite a few individuals contributed 1500 and a thousand dollars each. One man who comes here every winter sent his check for a thousand dollars.

L. B. Round, Rex Patch and myself were invited guests at the Chamber of Commerce dinner and get-together meeting. We got a lot of pointers and when the president of the New Castle Chamber of Commerce gets back he is going to try and get more than 228 members to the chamber in New Castle. The people of St. Petersburg think very well of the president of their Chamber of Commerce and also of all visiting presidents of Chambers of Commerce. At least they all want to know what the president of the New Castle chamber thinks of their city and Florida in general. It is quite gratifying to have so much favorable attention paid to one. We have come to the conclusion after visiting many cities in the south that a Chamber of Commerce president is a person of more importance than most New Castle people have considered him in the past. It does a person a lot of good to get away and see how other people live, but of course it is different if one buys too many lots in locations where even the owls do not go into.

All the green tomatoes are not shipped north. The people here eat them green also but they are fresh green ones when they eat them.

One of the worst combinations we have run into so far was in Cuba and it was the odor of garlic and cig smoke. It was just simply bad.

We may have said this before in a letter but we have forgotten if we did, and that is there was no singing in the Havana Rotary club. There were other things, however, that would make the members of most any Rotary or any other kind of a club warble a few discordant notes. In most all the cities we have visited golf seems to be the chief industry of a lot of the inhabitants and tourists. There are also a lot of bozos who run around in knickers who do not know what a golf ball looks like and would not know one if they met it on the street.

On Wednesday afternoon we received a call from Mr. and Mrs. Bert Ross, formerly of New Castle but now located here. We were glad to see them. They were accompanied by their daughter Ruth, who is now Mrs. Jay Calvin McKee. Mr. McKee was also in the party, as was Mrs. John Connery. Mr. and Mrs. Connery have been residents of St. Petersburg for some time and are here permanently.

Charles B. Carson, well known newspaper man of Youngstown, has been here for some time. His home is in Beaver Falls, where his father has the Review, a weekly newspaper. The Carsons are well known in New Castle.

L. D. McLane, mayor Linesville and well kown to many New Castlites, called on me this morning. He had seen my name in the paper and that is how he knew I was here. It pays to advertise.

We had the pleasure of attending a Washington's birthday party at the Huntingdon hotel in this city Wednesday evening. It was a brilliant affair and tantalizing dance music and a big midnight lunch were the features. This party was for the hotel guests, but we got our invitation through our friend Charles Carson of Youngstown. It was some party and we had a good time.

While at the horse shoe pitching emporium a few days ago we met B. F. Butler, one of the most enthusiastic pitchers and also an expert one. He had a bag of shoes with him and kept his hands on them all the time we were talking to him. Mr. and Mrs. Butler are spending the winter here.

We noticed in Friday's issue of the St. Petersurg Times a picture of Rex Patch, L. B. Round and myself. We are posed as three Rotarians, but the writer of the article made a mistake in stating that Louie is president of the New Castle Rotary club. He is president of the entertainment committee. It wasn't a bad picture—considering, etc. Rufus Patterson and his son "Billie" were in our hotel this morning. They have been in the south about three weeks and are going to Havana and points further south. They are in good health and enjoying the trip.

We have had the pleasure of seeing quite a few people in St. Petersburg, although there are many here whom we have not seen. In addition to those mentioned previously in this letter we have seen are as follows and are well known to New Castleites: Mrs. John M. Butz, J. Russell Balph, Mr. and Mrs. G. G. Stitzinger, Oliver J. Moore, Mr. and Mrs. Charles S. McCullough of Edenburg, Jess Cartwright, bass fiddler, formerly of New Castle; Mrs. Grace Phillips Johnson and son Tom, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Hugus, Mr. and Mrs. John Connery, Miss Frances Crill, who formerly had charge of the Ellwood City page in the News at New Castle and now on The Times here; W. N. Clark, now of Warren, O., and formerly with the Euwer furniture store in New Castle; Mrs. S. W. Perry, Dr. and Mrs. C. F. McDowell. A son of R. L. Turner, ticket agent of the Pennsylvania lines in New Castle, is city passenger agent of the Atlantic Coast line in this city.

I attended the Rotary meeting on Friday here and George Veach of Oil City was there and I talked to him. All the New Castle Rotarians, Patch, Round and myself, attended. We took the Hon. Walter S. Reynolds of New Castle with us. It was a great meeting.

On Friday morning Albert J. Watt, a former New Castle old timer, called on us in this hotel. He left New Castle 45 years ago and worked with me on The News as a printer. We are leaving here at 3 o'clock for Orlando and you will hear from me from there next.

Oatmeal
the rich source of so much children need

A bowl of Mother's Oats with milk makes a rich contribution to children's development. Not just energy—not just the muscle-and-tissue building element called protein.

But minerals, too.
And vitamins.
And the tender oat-bran.

These too-often-neglected factors are highly important, according to modern discoveries in nutrition. They are necessary for normal growth in children—which usually means normal sleep, normal play, and normal progress at school.

And for real health in grown-ups.

Mother's Oats is a natural whole-grain food; finely and evenly milled by careful millers. You can count on it always to cook up smooth and even, and you will love its rich flavor. Two kinds, Quick (cooks in 2½ to 5 minutes) and the kind you have always known. Both with coupons interchangeable with Aunt Jemima coupons, redeemable for premiums, silverware, toys, etc.

HAVE DIFFICULT ROLES IN PLAY

High School Students To Present "The Show-Off" Thursday And Friday

HARRIET MARTIN

ALLEN HAID

Production of the first act of "The Show-Off" at Senior High School in student assembly aroused much discussion among students and members of the faculty—certain indication of the vitality of the play.

Allan Haid in the leading role is essaying the most difficult task of his dramatic career to date. Skilfully acted, the Show-Off has the sympathy of his hearers at the end, even though in real life they may prefer him somewhere else than in their immediate vicinity.

Modern drama presents the individual struggling with his environment. The Show-Off realizes that he is not too well endowed with the qualities which make for success in this world, but, rather than be a nonenity, he puts on a brave front and blusters his way through to an unexpected termination. If he sometimes overdoes things in his policy of keeping up appearances—well, haven't we all?

In rehearsals Allan's work in this difficult part is steadily developing, and those who have enjoyed his purely comedy roles will appreciate his character delineation in this part, as well as the excellent comedy.

Harriet Martin, who will be remembered as the love-lorn damsel in "A Lucky Break," is portraying the modern girl in a different light in the new play. As Amy, the wilful, who takes Aubrey Piper at his own valuation, she announces her right to marry the man of her choice, however displeasing he may be to her family, and, like Aubrey, she stands by her choice.

There is a youthful sparkle in Amy's role which contrasts excellently with the poise and worldly wisdom of her married sister, Clara, this part being taken by Barbara Bratschie, who plays with her usual finish. Charles Knobloch as Frank Hyland, Clara's husband, has an opportunity for some clever work, and he has not neglected that opportunity—a fact fully appreciated by the students.

"The Show-Off", which will be given at Senior High School March 3 and 4, is the sort of comedy which sets you laughing and sets you thinking. It ran two years in New York, proof positive of its entertaining qualities, and is attracting large audiences on the road.

That local lovers of the drama are to see this recent success is due to the initiative of Miss Hartsuff and her players.

With Women Of Today

MRS. BLANCHE R. GREEN

If any business woman is earning more than $100,000 a year she should step right up and say so. For Mrs. Blanche R. Green of Yonkers, N. Y., is earning that much and is said to be the highest salaried business woman in America, if not in the world.

Mrs. Green makes her salary selling corsets in this so-called corsetless age. Fifteen years ago an accident crippled her husband for life and thrown on her own resources, chance or fate—whichever way you look at it—took her to a corset factory to apply for a job.

At the end of the first year she had broken all sales records. She is now vice president and general sales manager of the company at New Haven, Conn., and has a sales force of 3,500 working for her.

These are her rules of success:

"Plan your work and work your plan.

"Serve but one master.

"Be a leader, not a driver."

"As an executive, man has the greater stamina, and physical attributes in larger degree than women. No other reason in the world gives him the right to claim superiority over women," Mrs. Green declares.

Another Report Of Peeper Is Received

Police were called last night to investigate another of those almost habitual peeper calls which are being received from all parts of the city from time to time. The call last night came from the Levine home at Winter and Highland avenues and was to the effect that a man was peeping in at the windows of that place. Officers Samuels and Dukes were detailed on the job but were unable to locate any suspicious characters in that district.

If all of the filling stations were placed end to end, they'd remind us of how many grocers are unpaid.

House Likely To See Wet And Dry Clash This Week

Effort To Repeal Armstrong-Snyder Dry Enforcement Act Is Under Way

(From News Bureau State Capital)

HARRISBURG, March 1.—Before the house of representatives adjourns for the present week there is every possibility that there will be a pretty display of legislative pyrotechnics, with Charles F. Armstrong of Kittanning, Pa., formerly of New Castle, acting as master of ceremonies.

The fireworks will come, if they come at all, when the bill repealing the Armstrong-Snyder act comes out of committee. Ordinarily such a bill would be referred to the committee on law and order of which Mr. Armstrong is chairman. This bill was referred to the committee on judiciary special and the make-up of the committee is such that the bill will probably be reported out.

Just as soon as it is reported out, Mr. Armstrong expects to move for its recommitment to the committee on law and order and this motion should be the match that sets off the fireworks.

O Monday night, before the session convened, the air was heavy with expectancy over the proposed action. Friends of the Armstrong-Snyder act could be seen banding together in little groups, figuratively girding on their shield and buckler, prepared to do battle for their side of the wet and dry question. Proponents of the repealer were also busy and when the bill gets out onto the floor of the house, the chances are mighty bright for some action.

John T. Flood, one of the wet lobbyists in the house, has returned to the capital city after a tour of the state and apparently seems to think that enough votes can be mustered to pass the repealer in the house. If it does nothing else at present at least it will get a poll on the membership, which up to this time has been claimed to be predominantly wet or dry, depending upon which disciple you happen to meet.

New Castle Motor Club Will Oppose Compulsory Move

One of the problems before the motoring public today, and one that is bound to come before the law makers before long, is the question of compulsory automobile insurance. Different arguments are heard on this question from different sources, but the one that will have the greatest effect on the public in general is the opinion of the American Automobile Association.

B. N. Hanlon, secretary of the New Castle Motor Club, stated today that the association plans to combat the compulsory insurance. They have formed a special committee to lead in the attack on this source of accident prevention.

If only metropolitan police were as interested in those who go across as in those who come across.

Five Injured Leaping From Burning House After Gas Explosion

EAST LIVERPOOL, O., March 1.—Three persons are in the city hospital suffering from injuries and two others are slightly burned after all had been forced to leap from second story windows to save their lives when a gas explosion followed by fire occurred in the home of William Mayer.

Ruth Mayer 7, whose collarbone was broken when she alighted on a concrete wall, her sister Thelma 4, and their half brother, Clinton Boso 20 were seriously burned about the upper part of the body.

Boso with his sister Thelma in his arms jumped onto the roof of a nearby outhouse.

Donald Boso 18 and Clyde Boso, 22, other half brothers, escaped with minor burns.

Escaping gas in the oven of a kitchen stove ignited from a burner causing the explosion and blaze. The property damage was $2,500.

ISBURG, March 1.—The t of the Pennsylvania Old sion commission appointed to further investigate the of old age pensions was d today by Senator Flora is new report which gives a ve outline of a contributory pension plan applicable to ate, the Old Age Pension com- n has now given an alto- new aspect to the wide- discussion of this problem. ommission has had experts up a preliminary estimate of ost to employers and employes ennsylvania of a contributory ion scheme.

y having all the male industrial e-earners over 18 years of age the commonwealth, and all the ployers, obliged by law to pay 35 nts a week each (that is the em- oyer and employe will each con- ribute a like amount) it is esti- ated that within 30 years of this w going into force that pensions mounting to $365 per person could e paid to each worker at the age of 65 years without having to take penny from tax revenue. It is pointed out that private agencies could not provide this coverage at so low a cost.

Miles Dawson of New York, one of the most eminent actuaries in the country, is responsible for this estimate. Provision is made under this scheme to enable the worker who leaves the state, or quits gainful work, to collect the greatest part of his contributions to the pension fund.

The commission suggests that a contributory pension scheme seems a possible method of dealing with the problem of old age dependency but sees many practical difficulties in the way of collecting the contributions. It is suggested that some species of poll tax might solve the problem.

The commission believes, however, that for the present direct assistance from taxes will be necessary to relieve the needs of those aged persons in dire want at the present time and until the contributory pension fund could accumulate sufficient funds to carry itself.

The commission urges that a study be made of administrative problems involved in applying a contributory pension plan in this state. The commission strongly urges the second passage of the resolution to amend the constitution which would be submitted to a vote of the people in the fall of 1928 and which if passed would permit the legislature to make appropriations in behalf of the indigent aged.

The report includes over a hundred written opinions on the subject of old age pensions from some of the best known industrial leaders in this state and the country at large. The large majority of these business executives expressed themselves as recognizing the need for state or federal action to provide against old age dependency.

The commission gives a summary of the workings of all the old age pension systems now in force throughout the world and estimates that some 650,000,000 persons are now legally protected in some manner against old age dependency. It finds that only the United States, China and India are without adequate provision for their aged.

In support of its constantly reiterated contention that the cost of an old age pension law in Pennsylvania would be less per pensioner than is now spent on aged paupers through the poor relief system, the commission cites the experience of Montana which for more than three years has had an old age pension law in force, and where the cost of a pension amounts to only about $3 a week, while the cost of keeping the same person in the county poorhouse amounts to about $15 per week. The per capita cost of the Montana pension is but a little more than two cents per month. It is found that in spite of the small average pensions paid in Montana, the large majority of the poor prefer a pension to poor relief and that they are far happier and better off physically when allowed to remain with relatives or in their old homes on a pension.

College Debate Season To Open

Geneva, Grove City And Westminster To Meet On Thursday Night

(Special To The News)

NEW WILMINGTON, Mar. 1.—Westminster College's varsity debate season will open Thursday evening when a triangular debate with Geneva and Grove City is held. Westminster's negative team will remain at home to meet Geneva while the affirmative team will travel to Grove City.

Westminster's prospects for the season are not overly bright but there is every reason to believe that a fair amount of success will be attained. When the library was destroyed in the burning of Old Main, January 24, it was feared for a time that plans for the season would have to be dropped. However, both members of the squad and faculty coaches were unwilling to do this. With the aid of a little ingenuity and hard work, material necessary for the building of arguments were accumulated and the debaters set to work preparing speeches.

"Resolved, that the United States should cancel war debts owed it by the allied nations," is the question to be argued.

Howard Hamer of Erie, Thomas Mansell of New Wilmington, and Brown Bricker of Braddock, with Clyde Myers of New Castle, as alternate, are the debaters who will visit Grove City. Samuel Colman of Philadelphia, James Chambers of New Castle and Robert Ferguson of Bellevue, with William Botsford of Pittsburgh, will debate for Westminster at home.

Dr. C. A. Dawson, head of the English department; C. W. McKee, teacher of Economics and Business Administration, and Dr. C. B. Russell of the History Department, are the faculty coaches.

Engineers Will Meet In Sharon

SHARON, Pa., March 1—The application of Diesel oil engines with electric motors as the basis for the Diesel-electric railway locomotive, will be explained tonight by N. W. Storer, consulting railway engineer of the Westinghouse Electric and Manufacturing company, East Pittsburgh, before the regular March meeting of the Sharon section of the American Institute of Electrical Engineers. The association, which is composed of electrical engineers and contractors of Sharon, Warren, Pa., Mercer, Pa., and New Castle, Pa., and Youngstown, Ohio, will meet at 8 o'clock in the auditorium of the Sunshine society, in Walnut avenue.

Epsom Salts Like Lemonade

Made Pleasant with Grape and Lemon Acids

A tablespoonful of "Epsonade Salts" in a glass of cold water the next time you feel constipated, bilious or headachy will give you all the perfect action on the bowels of a dose of plain Epsom Salts but without the awful taste and neusea. Taken before any meal, it acts in an hour.

Ask for "Epsonade Salts" which costs only a few cents a package at any drug store. Even children gladly take this wonderful discovery of The American Epsom Assn.

Fears Of Earthquakes Declared Groundless

Father Tondorf Says They Are Not More Numerous, But Get More Publicity

WASHINGTON, D. C., Mar. 1.—The earth is not shaking any more than it used to, but people are noticing it more.

This is the answer of Director Tondorf of the Georgetown University observatory to the flood of inquiries reaching him as to whether earthquakes are increasing in number and frequency.

Because of the precision of instruments which record tremors, the public is informed constantly through their newspapers of disturbances of the earth's crust in all parts of the globe. The lay belief that the shocks are becoming close together is a result of this publicity.

"The layman, unofficially interested in the restlessness of the earth's crust, should know the truth," says Doctor Tondorf. "The problem of computing earthquake frequency was first scientifically undertaken by Count de Montessus de Ballore, one-time director of the seismological observatory of the government of Chile.

In 1900, after a close analysis of the then available earthquake records, 131,292 in number, he placed the annual average earthquake occurrence at 3,830, equivalent to an ear shock every two hours and twenty-seven minutes.

Four years afterwards Dr. August Sieberg of the University of Jena questioned the estimate as too low. A recalculation made by him in 1923 lifted the annual average grequency to 9,000, or about one every hour.

Five thousand of these quakes he indicated as being felt sensibly on some part of the earth's surface in varying intensities.

Issue New Warrant For "Big Bambino'

LOS ANGELES, March 1.—The sheriff's office said here that it had received a warrant from San Diego for the arrest of Babe Ruth, home run king of baseball, on a charge of violating the state child labor law. Ruth left here Saturday night for New York.

Ruth recently was acquitted of a similar charge in San Diego. Sheriff's officers said their warrant was based on a new complaint. The Babe was charged in the first action with having violated the state law by calling children onto the stage to perform in his vaudeville turn.

what thousands of doctors know!
If a quick, efficient tonic is needed, in thousands of cases the doctor at once prescribes Gude's Pepto-Mangan. But do you realize what a doctor insists on knowing before he will prescribe this or that medicine? He asks for ingredients—he recognizes the exceptional value of the iron and manganese in the ideal form found in Gude's Pepto-Mangan. Then he asks for proof—scientific proof. The tonic power of Gude's has been proved by hundreds of careful scientific tests. Finally the doctor keeps a careful record of results in his own practice.
When you realize this extreme care, the fact that Gude's Pepto-Mangan has been prescribed by thousands of doctors for over 34 years means that there can be no more efficient and successful tonic. Your druggist has it in both liquid and tablet form.
What Doctors Say:
"Have used Gude's Pepto-Mangan for many years and find it excellent."
"I have obtained very good results with Gude's Pepto-Mangan.
"I have used both your tablets and liquid with happy results."

Hilles To Inform President What He Ascertains On Tour

By CHARLES P. STEWART,
Exclusive Central Press Dispatch To News Castle News.

WASHINGTON, Mar. 1.—Charles D. Hilles, New York state's representative on the Republican national Committee and vice chairman of same, has gone west on a political tour of inspection.

West, in this case, means not only due west of New York City, but almost everywhere west of the Atlantic seaboard, from Maine to Florida.

Hilles is going to comb the whole country, in fact, and it's understood in Washington that his tour's purpose is to sound out presidential sentiment, with a view to 1928.

His trip's expected to take him a couple of months. This means that he'll have to travel fast. How thoroughly a single individual can digest as much information as he expects to gather in so short a space of time may be open to question, but Hilles means to do his best.

Of course he'll acquire his data in concentrated, capsule form. Local party leaders, each with a dose as to conditions in his particular bailiwick ready to be administered between trains, will meet the vice chairman here, there and everywhere, as he scoots along, and fill him up until he knows everything or until he bursts.

Hilles' journey will take him as close to the Canadian border as the Twin Cities and the extreme northwest, as far south as Los Angeles and New Orleans and to every important point in between.

Returning, he'll report to President Coolidge, and soon thereafter hints, at least, are looked for from the summer White House, setting at rest the question as to whether or not the present chief executive intends to claim another term.

The New York committeeman is known as a Coolidge man. The odds are considered a good many to one that he'll bring back a pro-Coolidge account of national public sentiment.

Even so, it will be an interesting report.

Supposing it does embody a strong recommendation to the president to run again, it nevertheless will contain much enlightening advice to the president concerning the right side for him to take on numerous disputed issues.

For instance, it's believed Hilles will tell:

What the corn belt really wants in the matter of farm relief.

How the south wants its cotton problem solved.

To what extent the country's back of the state department's "firm policy" toward Mexico.

The national reaction to the administration's armament limitation program.

Whether there's any real danger of a serious split between the agricultural west and the industrial east, and if there's much popular sentiment to the effect that "big business" has had about enough done for it, or maybe almost too much, for the present while.

Above everything, Hilles is looked to to let the president know how dry the dry spots in the country are, and how wet are the wet ones, and how does Hilles size the country up as a whole, on the wet-and-dry question, and was Dr. Nicholas Murray Butler right in saying that the 1928 party platforms will have to take one side or the other, and, if he was right, which is the side to take?

It is foreseen that ,on the prohibition issue, Hilles' report to the president will be as secret as the can make it.

True, subsequent developments will make it manifest what this report, when made, must have been, but there are plenty of politicians in Washington who'd give an arm or a leg to overhear what the vice chairman says when he says it, for he's recognized as a very astute investigator, and prohibition's the one question of all questions that has doubtful politicians jumping sideways these times.

Completes Series Of Meetings For College Students

(Special To The News)

NEW WILMINGTON, Pa., Mar. 1.—The Rev. William Tucker of the First United Presbyterian church of Jersey City, N. J., completed his week of evangelistic services at Westminster Sunday.

His final sermon was preached in the evening before an audience which completely filled the spacious United Presbyterian church. "When Jesus Confronts the Campus" was the subject of his sermon.

Rev. Tucker came to Westminster on the invitation of the College Board of Home Missions of the U. P. church. He spoke each morning at the chapel services and each evening. He made a decided "hit" with both students and faculty through his exceedingly pleasant personality and ability to speak on subjects of vital interest to college people.

The first industrial art school in the United States was established in Philadelphia in 1876.

Elect Girl Head Of College Class

Westminster Freshmen Name Miss Emma Ochiltree As President

(Special To The News)

NEW WILMINGTON, Pa., Mar. 1.—Westminster College has a girl class president. At a meeting of the Freshman class, Monday, Miss Emma Ochiltree of Pittsburgh, was elected president to fill the vacancy caused by the failure of Ralph Thomas of Sharon, to return to school the second semester.

Miss Ochiltree served as vice president of the class while Thomas was president. The class unanimously voted her the chair of president at the special election.

The naming of Miss Ochiltree as president, is extremely unusual since Westminster history reveals few girl class presidents. In a co-educational school and especially at Westminster, it is customary for a boy to act as president with a girl student as vice president.

At the same election, Miss Mary Tea of Pittsburgh, was named secretary, and Bradley Evans of Erie, vice president. James Blackwood of Cleveland, O., is treasurer of the class.

Here's Real Relief From Neuritis

In 24 to 48 Hours Pains Are Often Relieved and You Get Rest and Comfort Again.

Torturing pains—the kind that pierce and burn and never seem to let up—that rob a man of his sleep—that make him just a bag of nerves and all worn out.

Those are the pains that dope and coal tar products can only partially relieve.

The safest and most efficient way to get rid of the persistent, nerve-racking pains of Neuritis is to get a bottle of Allenrhu Special Formula No. 2. Be sure you get No. 2, which comes in capsule form. Take these little dark green capsules as directed and in about 24 hours you should be able to notice that they have considerably reduced if not almost banished those severe, torturing pains that have caused you so many sleepless nights. Continue for two or three days more or until you are satisfied with results.

It doesn't matter how long you may have suffered or whether your Neuritis is in the shoulder, arm, neck or legs, Allenrhu Special Formula No. 2 should give you speedy relief. McKee's Kut Rate Store, Eckerd's of New Castle, Inc.; Ellwood City Agent, F. L. Schweitzer or any good druggist will be glad to supply you.

Washington County Holds Coal Riches

ore Than 350,000 Acres Of Virgin Bituminous Still Untouched

WASHINGTON, Mar. 1.—Slightmore than one-fourth the Pittsrgh vein of coal has been mined Washington county, although e mining industry has flourished thin its borders for many years. Principal operations have been ong the edges of the county, be- guided by transportation facilis. The most extensive mining been along the Monongahela er, where some of the older nes have been worked out, but ousands of acres in the interior e untouched and will provide alth and employment for many ears to come.

Statistics show Washington coun- in the beginning had a total of 95,381 acres of coal lands. Of his, 126,339 acres have been mined, leaving 369,042 acres of irgin coal.

Even with the removal of the Pittsburgh vein, Washington county in the far-distant future will continue to rank as one of the centers of the production of the valuable fuel, for the Freeport vein, deep down in the earth, is estimated to be of a higher quality than the Pittsburgh vein, one of the best grades of bitumious.

The virgin acreage in the county will produce 2.583.294,000 tons of coal, it is estimated, which at present retail prices would be worth several billions of dollars.

Much of the acreage in Washington county is owned by the steel interests of the nation, and anent the effort of operators to obtain an adjustment of freight rates, one producer ventured the opinion that the "higher ups" in the steel industry are not in the least anxious to see the coal of this district shipped into foreign markets.

"As long as the coal supply of Western Pennsylvania lasts," it is stated, "Pittsburgh and the surrounding district will be one of the steel centers of the nation. As soon as this valuable fuel supply becomes exhausted there will be a change, which of course is in the distant future as far as most of us are concerned."

Prince William Declares America Slow In Aviation

CHICAGO, Mar. 1.—The thing about America that particularly impresses Prince William of Sweden, he said upon arriving from Detroit on his Middle Western tour, is the tardy development of commercial aviation as compared with European air progress. The long jumps between cities on the American continuent would naturally seem to make time-saving here more important than in Europe, Prince William said.

"Over there we feel as safe climbing into our airplane as boarding a train," he added, "and the percentage of accidents is virtually the same." Of prohibition in America, he said: "You people seem to have turned prohibition into politics."

Murderer Starves Himself To Death Awaiting Hearing

BOONEVILLE, Mo., March 1.—Charles Reed, 53, farmer and stockman, who was to have been given a sanity hearing today, died at a hospital here yesterday of general debility after a six weeks' hunger strike in which he refused to eat solid foods.

Physicians said Reed's death was a direct result of his refusal to eat during his prolonged confinement in the county jail awaiting trial for the killing of Mrs. Ina Schmidt, 25, of Sedalia, in a fit of jealousy last January 15. On February 12 he made two attempts to kill himself.

MERCER NEWS

Drawings for a chronic sickness hospital at the county home are now being made by C. F. Owsley of Youngstown, O., architect in charge of the drawings for the remodeled court house and jail.

The sketches will be submitted to the county commissioners and poor directors of the county within a ten day period for their approval.

An estimate of the cost of the building drawn will also be a part of the work of the architect.

It is roughly estimated that the cost of the new hospital will be $60,000. It has been recommended for construction now by three grand juries. It will be used for cases of chronic ailment which are brought to the home which under the present arrangement of hospital wards give the superintendent no opportunity to segrgate them as they should be.

There is a growing demand for such a building it is pointed out in the increased number of cases of chronic ailment that are being brought to the home for treatment. Under the present high cost of living and nursing many families are unable to support an invalid in the home and provide the proper care. The building will be of brick. It is planned to build now for a 40 bed hospital with the building so arranged that it may be added too as needed. It will be built close enough to the present building so that it may be heated from the plant now in use.

There are 460 wool growers that will be sent checks for their share of the wool pool of 86,000 pounds recently sold by the Mercer County Wool Growers association to Rosenthal Brothers of Boston. Payment of the wool has been made and just as soon as the necessary clerical work attendant to the division of the money can be made the checks will be sent out. The pool is the largest ever collected in the state.

The Mercer County Bond and Mortgage company has been liquadated by J. A. Stranahan, Jr., liquadating trustee. Less the expense there is for distribution in the hands of the trustee the sum of $4,992.07. There is stock outstanding amounting to $5,000 it is said.

The limit of the "spuds" that can be obtained for shipment to Mercer county growers from Petoska county, Michigan, has been reached in the placing of an order from this county for 3,070 bushels for spring planting.

This shipment will be made the last of April in five car loads. The potatoes are all disease free seed and are bought by members of the County Potatoe Growers association who have been planting and raising under the scientific methods advanced by the state.

The kitchen at the Second Presbyterian church has been remodeled by the board of trustees. A new stove and sink, the buiuding of new cupboards and the painting and lighting of the room are all included.

LAST DAY! ALL WINTER MERCHANDISE MUST GO!

OUT THEY GO! WE'RE THROUGH WITH THEM AS STOCK. WE MEAN TO CLEAR THEM OUT AT ONCE. THESE PRICES WILL CAUSE THEM TO SELL AT SIGHT. QUANTITIES ARE LARGE IN MOST CASES BUT WE ADVISE EARLY SHOPPING.

How to Reduce Varicose Veins

Rub Gently and Upward Toward the Heart as Blood in Veins Flows That Way.

Many people have become despondent because they have been led to believe that there is no remedy that will help reduce swollen veins and bunches. If you will get a two-ounce original bottle of Moone's Emerald Oil (full strength) at any first class drug store and apply it night and morning as directed you will quickly notice an improvement which will continue until the veins and bunches are reduced to normal.

Moone's Emerald Oil is a harmless, yet most powerful germicide and two ounces last a very long time. Indeed, so powerful is Emerald Oil that old chronic cases of Piles are often entirely absorbed and anyone who is disappointed with its use can have their money refunded. New Castle Drug Co., Love & Megown's, McKee's Kut Rate Store, Eckerd's of New Castle, Inc. sells lots of it.

Education Men Make Plans For Next School Year

Mrs. Edith Barnhart Give Fine Report At Dinner-Meeting Last Night

ELLWOOD CITY, Pa., March 1—Forty-four representatives from the Protestant churches of Ellwood City attended the dinner meeting of the Week Day Religious Education committee last night in the Methodist church.

Mrs. Edith Barnhart gave a very encouraging report of the progress of this education in the schools and plans were formulated for carrying the work on next school term, but cannot be announced until details have been worked out at next month's meeting.

The balance of the meeting was in the nature of an informal discussion of various phases of the work. This period of education fits in with the platoon system and one period each week is devoted to the teaching of religious education.

Benefits of this period are being noted by many parents who do not hesitate to report their findings to the members of the committee, thus encouraging them to carry on this estimable work.

Unlimited Service Is The Goal Of Local Motor Club Says Secretary

ELLWOOD CITY, March 1.—A certain doctor in Ellwood City was called out into the country last week on a sick call. He got stuck in the mud and after walking up the road for a mile or so he came across a farmhouse that had a telephone. He called the official garage of the Eilwood City Motor Club and when he got back to his car the wrecker was there and in a few moments he was out of the mud and on his way. He stated that if he had secured a team it would have cost him $5 or more, and he is a real booster for the club as the result of the incident.

Service that will re-establish a car owner's faith in his greatest pleasure—use of his car—should be the goal of every agency related to motordom, and it is the duty of the motorist to see that no unfair advantage is taken of this attitude on the part of manufacturers, service stations, garages and automobile clubs.

This is the opinion of Frederic M. Smith, secretary of the Ellwood City Motor Club, who declares that "unlimited service except in cases where imposition is patent" is the goal toward which the club and all other clubs similarly affiliated with the American Automobile Association is aiming.

"The automobile has become the greatest agency of pleasure in this country", says Mr. Smith, "but when it runs out of gas, or a tire blows out when one is dressed in one's best clothes, or one gets stuck in a mud hole or a similar minor misfortune occurs, the car ceases utterly to have any association with one's happiness.

"Here is where the automobile club steps into the picture. These are the moments when a motorist needs help most, for under such circumstances he is fitted least to help himself. A telephone call brings him gas without the necessity for a long walk, making a deposit on a container, catching a ride or walking back to the stalled car carrying an awkward can and then turning around to return to the filling station.

"Often a motorist is in a dilemna as to whether it is best to take a chance on ruining an expensive suit by changing a tire or to ruin an expensive tire by driving on a flat to the nearest service station or garage. Another case where a telephone call supplies a simple answer.

"These are trying moments for a motorist, and it is the aim of the motor club to make them less and less trying all the time. The popularity of the automobile is growing because service of this type is growing more efficient and tremendous gains in club membership are the reason for this more extensive and effective service."

Mrs. Felton Is Hostess To Club

ELLWOOD CITY, Pa., Mar. 1.—Mrs. Harry Felton of Fountain avenue was hostess to the members of the J. E. B. Club last evening at her home on Fountain avenue, with all the members present. Funeral Services Conducted Monday For Henry Gelbach

Many Zelienople And Local Friends Pay Final Tribute To Mr. Gelbach

ELLWOOD CITY, Pa., March 1—The funeral services for William Henry Gelbach of Zelienople who expired Friday evening at his home of a pneumonia attack which followed a stroke were conducted Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock from the Presbyterian church of Zelienople, with Rev. Moore pastor of the church officiating.

The center of a wealth of beautiful flowers, a mute evidence of the high esteem in which he was held in the community, Mr. Gelbach was laid to rest. A private interment was conducted at 4 o'clock in the Zelienople cemetery.

Pallbearers were associate members of the session of the church of the late Mr. Gelbach and were Messrs. John E. Kocher, Samuel Wright, Charles Goehring, Colmery, D. G. Bastien and James Welsh.

Equitable Life Statement

The 67th annual statement of The Equitable Life Assurance Society of the United States, published today, shows gains in all important items. The assets on December 31st last totaled $869,604,876, an increase of $77,200,000 over 1925, which is the largest gain ever made by the company. During the year the outstanding insurance passed the five billion mark, and now totals $5,067,965,000.

The new insurance paid for aggregated $1,017,513,000, including $194,233,000 of group insurance. This was the largest amount of new business in any year in the history of the company and represents an increase of $191,000,000 over the amount paid for in 1925.

During the year the company paid $111,814,000 to its policyholders and beneficiaries. Over $38,000,000 was set aside for payment on annual dividend policies alone during 1927.

Ninety-eight per cent of all domestic death claims paid during the year were settled within one day after receipt of due proofs of death.

Life-Long Reformer Was Wendell Phillips

Chief Fight Made By Eminent Orator Aimed To Abolish Slavery

Wendell Phillips, one of the most eminent of American orators, was born in Boston, Mass., Nov. 29, 1811. He was graduated from Harvard college in 1831 and from the Cambridge Law school in 1833, and was admitted to the bar in 1834.

At the time the agitation of the slavery question was violent and wide-spread, and in 1836 Phillips joined the Abolitionists. He conceived it such a wrong to the Constitution of the United States in sanctioning slavery that he could not conscientiously act under his attorney's oath to the constitution, and he abandoned the profession of law.

From that time until the emancipation of the slaves in 1863 he did not cease to lift up his voice against the system of slavery and in condemnation of the Constitution of the United States.

Phillips's first great speech against the slavery evil was made in Faneuil hall, Boston, in December, 1837, at a meeting "to notice in a suitable manner the murder in the city of Alton, Illinois, of the Rev. P. Lovejoy, who fell in defense of the freedom of the press." His address on that occasion was marked by an eloquence that he never surpassed, and it has been ranked with Patrick Henry's oration at Williamsburg and Lincoln's Gettysburg address.

Mr. Phillips was also prominent in other reforms, deeming it his mission to further the discussion of every claim of humanity. Accordingly, he spoke in behalf of Ireland, Crete, the Indians, prison reform, abolition of capital punishment, prohibitory legislation, the "greenback theory" and the rights of labor. In 1870 he received about 20,000 votes as the labor reform and temperance candidate for Governor of Massachusetts. He died in Boston February 2, 1884.

The lean dog tried to bark, to arn Petares, but fright robbed im of his bark, stuck his tongue o the roof of his mouth. Finding himself barkless, he tried to run to the river's edge, but he could not move his scared feet. Must he who so loved his master be forced to watch him perish before his very eyes and himself powerless to give aid? And then—well, then the un- expected happened.

The rushes that were upon Pe- tares' head moved as though shaken by a strong wind. Was, then, Pe- tares in the grasp of the crocodile? But no! Out of the water rose an arm. Down went the rushes into the water and the arm waved mer- ry greeting to the dog upon the bank. Out of the water waded a lad with a smiling face. Nearer the shore he came, and nearer. And when the water was no higher than his knees the dog upon the bank saw that the hand that hung by the boy's side carried a heavy bur- den—the three ducks that had dis- appeared beneath the surface of the river.

"Three birds in the hand are worth ten in the river", cried Pe- tares. "Did I not tell you, hound of mine, that mine was a good trick if it worked? The rushes fooled the ducks as I hoped they would. By the legs I caught these fellows while they dreamed not I was near. Fat are they, and ready for the feast!"

DINNER STORIES

Advance Information.

Every trade has its stock of well- known yarns, but occasionally a new one does occur only, alas, in time to become a classic. A cer- tain well-known newspaper man was holding forth to a group of writers, among whom was a rather famous novelist. The journalist was saying that he had recently been engaged in revising the obit- uaries held in readiness by his pa- per. Turning to the novelist, he added jocosely: "I've just been writing you up."

But the novelist, apparently, had not been following very closely. Waking up with a start, he asked eagerly: "When is it going to be published?"

Wanted His Money's Worth.

He entered the cigar store and asked for a package of cigarets, at the same time throwing a quarter on the counter.

"I don't like the ring of this coin," said the tobacconist.

"What do you want for a quar- ter," he shouted, "a peal of bells."

What a Blow!

A member of a theatrical com- pany was boasting of his love for the stage. He said:

"My father said to me one day: 'I will give you $50,000 if you won't become an actor!'"

"Indeed!" said the comedian of the company, "what did you do with all the money?"

It won't be long now until we get out the garden tools and start raising blisters.

Yankees May Offer Ruth Contract For $75,000, But Not Any More

TURNSTILES WILL SUFFER SEVERELY

BY DAVIS J. WALSH
Sports Editor International News Service

NEW YORK, Mar. 1.—Ty Cobb and Tris Speaker will be paid exactly $60,000 and $40,000 respectively for permitting themselves to be identified with the national pastime this year, it was revealed through a guarded inquiry by officials of the New York Yankees. Necessity, rather than the idle curiosity that inspires one man to peer over another's transom, prompted our men to don the rubber heels.

They mean to use the information they gleaned against George H. Ruth, the prominent right fielder, when he comes to town in a day or two loudly calling quarterback signals during a discussion of his 1927 salary.

Big hearted bystanders originally conceded Cobb $75,000 with the Philadelphia Athletics and Speaker $60,000 with the Washington Senators, so the local club had to do something before their man began running out of numbers. The estimated sums not only called for very critical money, even if the lads didn't get it, but the inspiration it afforded George Ruth, alais Herman, was almost unlimited.

Wants Only $100,000

It has reached the point where $100,000 is asked and $52,000 bid but the principals really won't get down to platform speaking until the big wage conference on Thursday. So far, they have merely tried to take over the trans-continental shouting concession but George is due to arrive in town tomorrow, so the fishmongers will have the field to themselves overnight.

A fair guess is that the conference will end with George without a contract and the Yankees without a right fielder. It is certain now that Ruth will be turned down colder than a barefoot when and if he as much as mentions $100,000. It is the writer's information that the club will agree reluctantly to $65,000 as a haggling figure and perhaps $75,000 as the last card is turned.

That is the club's story today, anyhow. Just what it would be a month from now, with Ruth playing golf and the Yanks trying to collect their annual exhibition shake-down without him, is not very difficult to imagine. Ruth is sitting behind four aces before the draw.

His salary, even if he signed tomorrow for a hundred dollars or a hundred thousand, will not start before April 13, the first day of the regular season. He, therefore, can afford to out-wait the boys. Meantime, they must have him in the lineup before the team starts north, if they expect to cull the customer through the provinces in the manner to which they have become accustomed. This item in other years alone has served to pay the training expenses of the entire club and show a handsome profit besides.

That, added to the fact that in an endurance contest Ruth would suffer less than the ball club, makes it difficult to see how the young man can go wrong. He can't, in fact, unless he hasn't sense enough to go right.

Jimmy Delaney In Critical Condition

MINNEAPOLIS, Mar. 1.—Little hope was held out today for the recovery of Jimmy Delaney, St. Paul light-heavyweight boxer, who has blood poisoning in his left arm.

He has undergone two operations and submitted to a blood transfusion since being admitted to a local hospital last week. His condition became worse last night.

Delaney splintered a bone in his left arm during a fight with Maxie Rosenbloom at Cincinnati two weeks ago and it became infected.

For seven years the supremacy of the United States in the Davis Cup matches has been unchallenged. In those seven years only two individual contests out of 35 have been lost in the challenge rounds. Clean sweeps were made over Australia in 1920 and 1924, over Japan in 1921, and over France in 1925 and again last year. In 1922 Australia won the doubles match, and in 1923 one of the singles contests. This is a record without parallel in the history of the Davis Cup matches, which began in 1900.

Grove City Names Cross Country Pilot

GROVE CITY, Pa., Mar. 1.—Jim Evans of Erie, Sophomore at Grove City College, was elected captain of the Grove City cross country team for the 1927 season at a recent meeting of the cross country team members. Evans' selection is a splendid one. He has all the qualities of a fine leader and his brilliant performances last fall well warrant him the coveted honor. Evans ran on the cross country team for the first time last fall and won the two well deserving triumphs over the championship Geneva College team, Allegheny and Thiel. Evans is a popular chap here, the star distance man also holding the office of president of his class.

Westminster Meets Geneva On Wednesday

(Special To The News)

NEW WILMINGTON, Pa., March 1.—Westminster college's basketball season, while not productive of championships has been unusually successful, but before the stamp of approval can be placed on the records the blue jerseyed lads must topple Geneva when the Covenanters play here Wednesday evening. This will mark the last home appearance of the United Presbyterians. The season ends with a game at Thiel March 8.

Westminster's record for the season shows eight victories in nine starts on the home floor. Waynesburg is the only quintet that was able to come here and leave with a boastful record. Adrian, Thiel, Allegheny, Bethany and Duquesne are among those who received the worst of their engagements here. Duquesnes superb machine, received its salty dose no later than last Saturday evening.

Westminster wants to win from Geneva. There are no "ifs" nor "ands" about it. The Beaver valley boys snowed Westminster under at Beaver Falls during the early stages of the campaign and this defeat is the stigma that has caused Westminster to drop out of the running for conference honors.

Regardless of the home record of Coach Lawther's proteges, there is no reason to believe that the final result will be a Westminster victory. Geneva has a dangerous combination. They are coached gy "Bo" McMillin, former All-American gridder at Centre. His team does not specialize in team play but rather in long range shooting. If this man Rubenstein and his chief co-partner Capt. Clark are "on," Westminsterites will wend their way home with down-cast heads.

Westminster is in good physical shape. A light drill was held Monday and this will be repeated Tuesday.

Blue And White To Meet Geneva

Covenanters Expect Stiff Battle With Westminster Wednesday

DUQUESNE AT GENEVA NEXT FRIDAY NIGHT

BEAVER FALLS, Pa., March 1.—Geneva is half way through her hardest week. The game with Allegheny last week was an introduction of this week's terrific competition. Waynesburg kept the Covenanters busy Monday and Wednesday the dwarfed McMillin crew will buck up against Westminster.

This contest is most feared of any of the year's schedule. In former years the United Presbyterians never had much in the way of material but invariably ran Geneva a terrible race in any form of contest Now they have fine material and have developed a very good team. The proposition is doubly tough for Captain Mort Clarke and his helpers.

Duquesne will visit the Geneva band box for a battle Friday night. This contest is the biggest game on the basketball card. Duquesne ran away with things at the Duke's gym but this solitary confinement in Geneva's gym may change things. Long shots will be resorted to by both squads in case the Geneva defense can hold out Duquesne's tricky offense.

As a preliminary to the Westminster-Geneva game the intramural champions of the two schools will play. The intramural champs of the Duquesne league will battle Geneva's champions Friday as a preliminary. Geneva's race lies between Maggie Dambach's Blue Tornado and Edgecombe's Chain Gang. The first is made up of waiters in a local restaurant, the latter is taken from the college engineering department. Both are good teams and either will furnish the other intramural teams with a stiff fight.

Geneva varsity will finish against Grove City at Grove City next Tuesday.

Leo Lomski, the sensational Pacific coast middleweight, may have K. O. Phil Kaplan as an opponent when he makes his eastern debut in Madison Square Garden, probably in the latter part of March.

Ed. Barrow of the New York Yankees had a chance to get Ty Cobb for $800 back in 1905, but he passed up the opportunity.

A Rampaging Elephant — By Feg Murray

If March comes in like a lion it goes out like a lamb so the saying goes. But what if Connie Mack comes in like a roaring, stampeding mastodon at the start of the season—will he go out like an electric light globe drooped from the Woolworth building before the American league race is ended?

Behold the veteran manager astride his electrified elephant, tearing along at a tremendous pace for one so aged? Whence all the pep? Why all the noise? What's all the shootin' for? Well if you had a club that included such stars as Bob Grove, Gordon Cochrane and Al Simmons and you suddenly acquired those three grand veterans, Ty Cobb, Eddie Collins and Zack Wheat and the sensational minor leaguer Joe Boley, wouldn't you feel all pepped up and as though you were on your way to a pennant?

The raw deal that Fate has handed the long lanky Cornelius McGillicuddy is well known and last year must have semed the unkindest cut of all for affer working his team up to second place in 1925 from seven straight years in the cellar, the Athletics slipped back once more and finished in third position.

But perhaps that was merely one last cruel gesture by the Gods who control the destinies of baseball managers and a "dawn" will break at last for Connie Mack after the "darkest hour" of 1925.

Think of the strength Mack has along that famous line from the plate to center field with Cochrane, Grove, Gray, Ehmke, Rommel and Quinn; Collins and Boley and Al Simmons! If Connie suddenly turned spendtrift, wins a pennat at last because of his newly acquired high-priced stars, he'll deserve a medal. Decorate him with the "V. C." which also stands for Vacuum Cleaner.

Feg Murray Says.

No Esmeralda, Osif, the Haskell Indian runner, does not carry a bow and arrow, though he has been known to quiver from excitement.

Training Camps

(International News Service)

FORT MYERS, Fla., Mar. 1.—Two snappy practice drills are scheduled for the Athletics again today and tomorrow. One group trains in the forenoon, the other in the afternoon. Thursday regular games between two groups will start. Eddie Collins showed his oldtime speed and batting skill in practice yesterday. The new infield of Collins at second, Dud Branlom at first, Joe Boley playing shortstop and Sammy Hale on third went through a few minutes of play for the first time showing flashes of real promise. Ty Cobb is expected Thursday. He is reported enroute by automobile.

BRADENTON, Fla.—The Phillies started practice under the watchful eye of Stuffy McInnis, taking a two hour workout in the morning and one in the afternoon. Another light workout is on tap for today. Fifteen men compose the squad to date. Wawland Dean and John Scott, missing hurlers are expected today.

PASO ROBLES, Cal. — With Donie Bush, new manager of the Pittsburgh Pirates in uniform and sending his men through an intensive routine at the Pirates spring training quarters here, observers awaited the arrival of the club's second squad, due today. Dopesters agree that Joe Cronin rookie, has cinched a berth in the infield by his showing to date. He may crowd out Hal Rhyne, regular second sacker, those close to Manager Bush say.

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla. — With Dutch Reuther's good left arm apparently in first class shape, and the star southpaw's signed contract safely stowed away in the Yankee strongbox, Manager Miller Huggins' pitching prospects appeared considerable brighter today. Reuther, reporting a week ahead of time, said he has felt like a new man since undergoing an operation recently.

SARASOTA, Fla.—John McGraw is enthused over the showing of Almada, the youthful Mexican pitcher who learned his baseball in Los Angeles. Almada has outshone the other rookie twirlers in practice thus far.

CLEARWATER, Fla. — Weary and sore from their first workout of the season, the Brooklyn Robins continued limbering up exercises today. Their numbers were increased by the arrival of pitchers Petty, McWeeny and Ehrhardt.

SHREVEPORT, La. — Hurling candidates attracted the attention of Manager Ray Schalk when he assembled the vanguard of the White Sox here for spring training. "Cracker" tried to start the boys on their way, but the weather man was against him. Rain fell in vast proportions to gum up the works and even the oldest inhabitants declared the deluge was the worst in forty years. The field was impossible today.

Avalon, Calif.—Young Mr. Kern, lately of Oklahoma and Waukegan, Ill., has fallen into pleasant ways. He has attracted the attention of Manager Joe McCarthy of the Cubs and will have more than an ordinary trial with the Bruins. Kern is a double-jointed athlete, who plays either infield or outfield. He batted .347 last season. McCarthy indicated he will groom Kern with the idea of using him at second base.

JACKSONVILLE, Fla.—Contingents of the Cleveland Indians are scheduled to meet here today and proceed to Lakeland, where training starts tomorrow.

The main band was reported leaving Chattanooga last night to join the battery men here today. The pitchers and catchers have been warming up at Hot Springs.

TAMPA, Fla.—Manager Bucky Harris of the Senators is all pepped up over the showing of his young pitcher, Horace Lisenbee, Memphis recruit. He expects great things from him.

Tris Speaker is due to join the Nats today and will be in uniform tomorrow.

Allegheny To Meet Crimson Five Friday

GROVE CITY, Pa., Mar. 1.—Grove City College faces one of the most important games on schedule this coming Friday night when Coach Dick Baker and his Allegheny College passers meet the Crimson here in a return engagement.

Grove City, following its unsuccessful invasion to Pittsburgh and Washington last week-end where the Crimson met defeat at the hands of Carnegie Tech and W. & J. will be out to redeem themselves in the Allegheny game, and the boys will be primed accordingly for the clash.

The intercollegiate rowing season for 1927 will be inaugurated on April 9 with the annual clash between University of California and University of Washington crews on the Oakland estuary.

Charles C. Peterson of New York, the veteran billiard referee, has officiated at about 275 championship matches.

Youth Wins From Age At Geneva

Professors Bow In Basketball Game By Nine Point Margin

BEAVER FALLS, Pa., Mar. 1.—Two leagues finished their course in the Geneva intramural championship last week, leaving two teams to battle for the championship. In League I a very close race between three first class teams resulted in the victory of Maggie Dambach's Blue Tornado. This quintet is a representative team made up from boys who earn their board at Maggie Dambach's restaurant, in Beaver Falls. Last year they were runners up to the champion Schrimzzlleettee team, but defeated last year's champs in a hot game last Friday 28 to 17.

In League II the race was between the Faculty five and Edgecomb's Chain Gang, a team representing the engineering students. The faculty five consisted of Coach Bo McMillin, Manager Edgecombe, former Coach Robert Park, and Mr. Newpher and Peterson, with the brilliant Prof. Cutright. Cutright coached Geneva's basketball team three years ago.

The age of the professors bowed to the exhuberant spirits of youth in the final game Friday by the score of 31 to 22. The Edgecombe's Chain Gang showed the best passing attack of any team in the intramural league. Its lineup includes the two Lockley brothers from New Castle, members of Geneva's track and cross-country squad. McIvor is another New Castle commuter. The game between Maggie Dambach's Blue Tornado and the Chain Gang promises to be a lively tussle.

The winner of the league at Geneva will accompany the Varsity to New Wilmington Wednesday night, where Westminster's champion will be engaged. Next Friday the Duquesne intramural champions will meet Geneva's as a preliminary game to the Geneva-Duquesne game.

Crowley-Corbett Scheduled For Return Fight

(International News Service)

PITTSBURGH, March 1.—Tommy Crowley, local featherweight champion, is to trade punches with Al Corbett of Cleveland in the main bout of a boxing show here Monday night. Corbett holds a newspaper decision over the Pittsburgher as the result of a fight in Steubenville several weeks ago.

Kid Terlenski of Reynoldsville and Young Saylor of Charleroi, Denver Leonard of Pittsburgh and Jackie Lewis of DuBois, and Jack O'Connell of Notre Dame and Pete Kuzma of Pittsburgh will complete the card.

League Leaders To Play At Y Tonight

Marcella Grocers will play the Gerson Imperials tonight at the Y. The game will start at 8 o'clock. The Imperials are leading the Church League for the second half, having captured three straight games. Tonight's game should be interesting.

Dreyfuss Pleased Wi Manner In Which Bus Handles Pirate Tea

Former Manager Of Indianapolis Team Lays Down Stringent Laws To Players

Opening Day Will Find New Order In Force At Forbes Field, Says Owner

BY CARL L. TURNER
International News Service Staff Correspondent

PITTSBURGH, Mar. 1.—While their stalwarts are cavorting on the Paso Robles training camp diamond working winter kinks out of muscles, the management of the Pittsburgh Pirates let it be known today that the coming season will find an entirely new order in vogue at Forbes field.

Opening day will find not only a new manager, Donie Bush, late pilot of the Indianapolis American Association club, directing the Dreyfuss hirelings; it will witness the inauguration of many new field policies.

Bush, who tried his hand at steering the Washington Senators four years ago, will manage the Pirates alone and in his own way, he says. There will be none of the conflicting orders so common in recent seasons. Players will be instructed from the bench and the baseline boxes will be reserved for spectators, not managers.

Bush has little in common with "Bill" McKechnie, who led the Pirates to a world series pennant in 1925 only to be deposed when internal strife came to the surface late last season, costing the team the National league pennant. While McKechnie avoided unpleasant disciplinary action event to a fault, his successor will lay down rules at the outset and insist upon their being respected, regardless of the player's service or box office value.

In his first address to the players at Paso Robles, the new manager told his charges in a straight-from-the-shoulder talk that he was "boss" and that his orders would be final.

"I will stand for no interference," Bush warned. "My instructions will be for the best interests of the club and I will want them obeyed.

"It is not my desire to be a hard taskmaster, but transgressors will find me anything but lenient.

"Having played baseball for many years, I know the trouble that drinking brings among ball players. I don't want any man on the club who touches intoxicating liquor."

The new manager predicts complete harmony for the club this season. In fact, he avers he will ask the release of any player who does not cooperate in the interest of the team.

At present Bush is concentrating in the development of pitchers, for he believes the Pirates can win the pennant if the hurlers come through as expected.

Always well supplied with sluggers, the Pirates this season have the addition of Joe Harris, ex-Washington Senator, who will be used in a utility role, being saved for the pinches.

Edward W. Gardner of Montclair, N. J., is the only five-time winner of the national amateur 18.2 balkline billiard championship. Gardner won the title in 1902, 1906, 1910, 1914 and 1916.

Bessemer Pirates Lose To Canf

Fast Game Is Played On Can Floor; Final Score Is 45-36

BESSEMER, March 1.—T Bessemer Pirates traveled to Canfield Saturday and dropped a hard tussle to the Canfield Olympics of that place by the score of 45-36.

The game was of the free scoring variety and was fast and interesting throughout. All but one of the points made by both teams were made on field goals.

The Pirates surprised the Olympics by dropping in three field goals before the Olympics could get started. At quarter time Bessemer was leading 10-8. Before the half was over the Olympics went to the front 22-18.

In the third period Ross of the Olympics struck a lucky streak and his work shoved the Olympics still further out in front and his team led by ten points at the three way mark.

With the start of the last period the Pirates started an attack on the basket and crept up to within a field goal of the Olympics, when a squabble arose between two of the participants which almost broke up the game.

One more word regarding the game. It is generally a custom to have an eleventh man on the floor to act in the capacity of an official, but in this particular game he was just so much superfluous material, and a better game and better feeling would have resulted without him.

The lineup:

Bessemer—36.		Canfield—45
Olson	F	Ross
Jacobson	F	Corll
Swanson	C	Zimmerman
Smith	G	Lynn
Riehle	G	Heintzlemen

Subs: Bessemer, Malley; Canfield, Brobst, Reed.

Field goals: Olson 7, Jacobson 4, Swanson 1, Smith 3, Riehle 3, Ross 9, Corll 5, Zimmerman 3, Brobst 1, Lynn 3, Reed 1.

Foul goals: Heintzlemen 1.

Referee: Lambreth.

Timer: Shreffler.

Miss Anderson And Lott Win

HAMILTON, Bermuda, March 1. In the last day of play in the annual Bermuda tennis championship tournament here yesterday Miss Penelope Anderson of Richmond, Va., and George M. Lott of Chicago defeated Miss Beryl Robinson and Capt. Hugh Gregg of Bermuda, 13-11, 6-4, in the mixed doubles.

In the men's singles George M. Lott defeated Frederick Mercur of Bethlehem 4-6, 6-2, 7-5, 12-10. On Saturday Mercur and Lott battled for almost two hours in the final of the men's singles but the match was interrupted by darkness. Mercur winning the first two sets 6-4, 6-4 and Lott winning the next two 6-3, 6-3 and the fifth set standing 7-6 in Lott's favor when play was called off. Today it was decided to replay the entire match.

New Wilmington High Boys Win, Girls Defeated

New Wilmington Upsets West Middlesex High 45 To 8; Girls Lose 33 To 25

(Special To The News)

NEW WILMINGTON, Pa., Mar. 1.—New Wilmington defeated the West Middlesex high team here last night in a one-sided game. The final score showed the Wilmington boys to be holding 45 points to their opponents' 8. The game was played on the New Wilmington floor.

The visiting five used their second team throughout the first three quarters and a good part of the fourth. Their reason for this is the fact that they are the leading contenders for a championship in their district and are trying to have their men for the championship games.

At the half the invading team was burdened under a smothering score of 23-3, the locals hitting their stride at the start of the game and apparently giving the visitors the ball only when a little excitement was wanted.

The big surprise of the game came in the third quarter when Landsdown scored a field goal. This was the first one for the Middlesex lads and turned out to be the only one. At the start of the fourth quarter the score was 35-5. Landsdown's lone marker giving the losers their only points.

Having shot one foul in the first quarter and two in the second, the visiting five felt hurt over the fact that they had missed all fouls in the third period, so they retaliated in the last and scored three points by that method.

Hutchison was high scorer for New Wilmington, while James played a good game. For the losers Erb and Hogue were the boys who made the best showing.

The Middlesex girls defeated the New Wilmington girls 33 to 25 in a fast game.

The visiting girls held the lead throughout the game, having a 19-12 lead at the half.

Minner and Adams were the best bets for the defeated five while Erb and Edeburn starred for the invading team.

The lineups:

Boys' Game.

N. Wilmington 45		W. Middlesex 8
Davis	F.	Mitchell
Patterson	F.	Powell
Hutchison	C.	Landsdown
James	G.	Hogue
Herriott	G.	Erb

Subs—West Middlesex: Petters, Tate, Moore, Young, Pitts.

Field goals—Hutchison 8, Herriott, Patterson 4, Davis 3, James 2, Landsdown.

Foul goals—New Wilmington 5 out of 13, West Middlesex 6 out of 11.

Referee—Coles.

Girls' Game.

W. Middlesex 33		N. Wilmington 25
Erb	F.	Minner
Berkovich	F.	Robinson
Watson	C.	Wilson
Bellville	S. C.	Bell
Boal	G.	Ferver
Bixler	G.	Doff

Subs—Adams, Edeburn.

Field goals—Erb 9, Minner 7, Berkovich 6, Robinson 3.

Foul goals—West Middlesex 3 out of 8, New Wilmington 5 out of 8.

Referee—French.

Covenanters Win Over Waynesburg

Victory Gives Impetus To "Dukes" For Championship

BEAVER FALLS, Mar. 1.—Geneva defeated Waynesburg in a Tri-State Conference basketball game here last night, and by doing so, just about assured the Duquesne University team of Pittsburgh of this year's championship. The score of last night's game was 29-24.

Both teams battled furiously for supremacy last night, the game being fast and rough. One Geneva and three Waynesburg players were put out of the game for violations of the four personal foul rule.

Frank, Waynesburg guard, was the star of the game, with four goals from the field. Friedman of Geneva had three and Moe Rubenstein two.

Geneva took the lead in the final 10 minutes of play and won out by holding on to the lead, though the Jackets rallied in the closing moments of the game. The lineup:

Geneva 29		Waynesburg 23
Rubenstein	F.	White
Friedman	F.	Baker
Merriman	C.	Knox
Clarke	G.	Frank
Emerick	G.	Welsh

Substitutions: Geneva — Lloyd; Waynesburg — Allison, Randolph, Woodward and Newell. Field goals: Geneva—Rubenstein 2, Friedman 3, Merriman, Clarke, Emerick 3; Waynesburg—White, Baker, Knox, Frank 4, Welsh 2. Foul goals—Geneva—9 out of 17; Waynesburg, 6 out of 16. Referee—Beggs Snyder, Pittsburgh. Umpire—Dan Daugherty, W. & J. Time of game—20 minute halves.

McDowells Win Prizes At Fairs Down In South

D. F. McDowell and Sons who have made such a record with their Poland China hogs at the local fairs are now winning all kinds of prizes at the Winter Fairs in the south.

At the South Florida fair and Gasparilla carnival held February 1-12 they had to compete with herds from Iowa, Ohio and Florida and yet they came away with 10 first prizes, 5 seconds and all of the champions except one Junior champion which was won by Iowa parties. At this fair they won the Junior champion, Senior champion and Grand champion in females and Senior and Grand champion in males.

At the Sub-Tropical fair held at Orlando, McDowell's herds won 10 firsts, 6 seconds and all 6 of the champions.

This is quite a record for the McDowell herds. David E. McDowell, swine manager of the McDowell Stock farms is overseeing the exhibits in the sunny southland.

Overlands To Play Bessemer Tonight

The Rick-Overlands, one of the leading teams for the city industrial league title, will journey to Bessemer tonight to tangle with the fast Bessemer Pirate team.

The following members of the team are asked to report at the Rick-Overland company at 7:30 o'clock sharp: Cuba, Jones, Baptiste, Kirker, Uhle, Nocera, Hoyland, VanFossan, Mariacher, Manager Glenn Doerr and Coach Fraser.

Manager Glenn Doerr announced today that he had withdrawn his protest of the Tin Mill-Overland tangle Saturday night.

Americanism: Taking a drink you don't want to make the host believe you aren't afraid.

Wing-Footed Pirate Rookie

Herman Layne, above, outfielder with the Pirates, is rated by scouts who watched him with Toronto last season as one of the fastest players in the game today. The Pittsburg club paid a neat price for him and he may land a regular berth this very campaign.

SPORTS DONE BROWN

The report that Mlle. Suzanne Lenglen lost her heart to some dashing American while exhibiting her tennis prowess in the United States is interesting. It seems more than possible that the vivacious, dashing French maid might smite the heart of some stalwart, handsome chap while with us.

And hers would not be the first international romance between an European tennis queen and an American.

Back in October, 1914, Miss Molla Bjurstedt came to this country from Norway, her native land, where she had won fame as a tennis player. The very next season she proceeded to dethrone Miss Mary K. Browne, three times champion in the national tourney and incidentally reign supreme for four years.

THEN CUPID "SERVES"

In 1917, while wintering at Palm Beach, she met Franklin Mallory, wealthy American. Mallory had been an admirer of her play before they met. Their romance grew and resulted in their marriage early in 1919.

Mrs. Mallory, after winning the national championship in 1915-16-17-18, lost it in 1919 to Mrs. George W. Wightman. The following year, however, the Norwegian star regained the title and held it in 1921 and 1922, only to meet defeat at the hands of the young California maid, Helen Wills, in 1923.

Mrs. Mallory's remarkable feat in regaining the title last summer in the national tourney is still fresh in the memory of sport fans. Miss Wills was forced to withdraw from the tourney due to an operation for appendicitis, earlier in the year.

ONLY ONE PILOT LEAVES TENT

While eight major league managers lost their official heads during the past winter, it is an interesting fact that only one of the eight has dropped out of the big time. The other seven remain as privates, coaches and scouts.

Lee Fohl, deposed pilot of the Red Sox, is managing the Toronto International League club in Dan Howley's place.

Eddie Collins moved to the Athletics after leaving the throne of the White Sox. Tris Speaker will play centerfield for Washington, while Jack McCallister, Speaker's successor, tries to find a centerfielder for the Indians.

Ty Cobb will roam about the Athletic outfield while George Moriarty tries to succeed where Ty failed at Detroit. Art Fletcher, ex-pilot of the hopeless Phils, is a coach and advisor with the Yankees. Bill McKechnie, canned by the Pirates, will help Bob O'Farrell make St. Louis forget Hornsby. George Sisler remains with the Browns to devote his entire time to first basing. Hornsby will play second for the Giants.

"Art" Magazines May Bring Action By Legislature

Bill Is Introduced To Govern Sale Of So-called "Art" Magazines

(From News Bureau State Capitol)

HARRISBURG, March 1.—One of the first cities in Pennsylvania to ban the offensive "art" magazines from its news stands, New Castle will be interested to know that the matter has reached the General Assembly and on Monday night Representative Phillip Sterling of Philadelphia presented a bill which would license dealers in such magazines. The bill has the backing of the Committee of Twenty Five of the Federation of Churches of Philadelphia.

Under the provisions of the bill all dealers in these so-called "art" magazines would have to register, the registration fee being $5.00 for dealers and $1.00 for salesmen. The bureau would be under the jurisdiction of the Department of Education, and inspectors would be employed to oversee news stands.

The obscenity in these magazines has reached a point where almost every city in the state is taking steps to ban the magazines from the news stands, for like other liberties which have developed into license, they are killing their own business.

Defense Alleges Settlement Made In Damage Suit

Moreski Brothers Introduce Agreement And Draft For $50 As Evidence

In the case of Louis Holesko against Joseph nad Morris Moreski, which has been on trial at the court house for the past four days, the defense this morning introduced as evidence a written agreement, whereby the parents of Louis Holesko had made a settlement of the claim against the defendants for the sum of $50. The defendants carried insurance and a draft of the insurance company for the $50 agreed upon in the settlement was also exhibited as evidence. This settlement was effected a short time after the accident to Louis Holesko on Long avenue, and it is alleged by the defense at a time when it appeared that the boy was not seriously injured. It is claimed by the defense that it was more than a year after this settlement when Louis Holesko developed a malady which his parents attributed to the accident. It is contended by the defense that the malady was not a result of the accident, but was caused by an infection. It was after this had developed that the suit against Joseph and Morris Moreski for $40,000 damage was instituted. The defense claims that the settlement was a bar to any further proceedings. The case is still on trial.

Bill To Ordain Sumner Avenue

Council Orders Ordinance Providing For Acorn Street Grading

An ordinance providing for the ordaining, establishing of a grade and width of Sumner avenue, between Highland avenue and Carlisle street, was introduced today and sent to committee.

A petition requesting the grading of Acorn between DuShane and Williams street was presented and Councilman Genkinger's motion that the solicitor draw an ordinance conforming to the petition was acted upon favorably.

Council To Study Fire House Sketches

May Name Architect At Friday's Meeting To Draw Plans

Friday morning council will study the sketches drawn by J. A. Altschuler, J. W. Earl and J. W. Miller for the proposed fire station to be erected in South Jefferson street.

It is anticipated the solons will name an architect to prepare plans and specifications, not only for this job but also for a heating system in the city building.

Council took no action on the plans today on account of the illness of Mayor William Dunlap.

Forkins Loses To Ted Esterbrook

Sarmiento And Goldstein Fight Slow, Local Fans Report

Ted Esterbrook of Niles, O., defeated Mickie Forkins of Warren in 10 rounds at Philadelphia last night, according to I. N. S. reports received here today.

Local fans who witnessed the Pete Sarmiento-Abe Goldstein 12-round bout at Youngstown last night termed it a slow fight, with honors about even.

There's one good thing about hard times. The people won't stand for official graft.

Dickson City Fire Loss Is $30,000, Four Are Injured

Three Dwellings Are Destroyed; Six Others Are Badly Damaged

(International News Service)

SCRANTON, Pa., Mar. 1.—When fire early today destroyed three dwellings and damaged six others at Dickson City, a suburb, four persons were seriously burned and twenty others escaped injuries by fleeing to the streets in night clothing. The loss was estimated at $30,000.

The fire started in the home of Jacob Rogalski. Awakened by the cries of a three year old boy, Rogalski found his home a mass of flames. Rogalski by the use of a rope made from bed clothing lowered his wife and seven children from a second story window to the street. Leo Rogalski, 16, was lost in the smoke in the house and he was seriously burned before he could be rescued.

Felix Remsky, living in the adjoining house was overcome by smoke in his efforts to save his family and he and a small child were severely burned when rescued by firemen. The house collapsed just as the father and child were carried to the street. Demsky had lowered his wife and three children into the arms of firemen before he was overcome by the smoke.

Anthony Dembroski, living in third house destroyed, also was critically burned.

Fire apparatus was called from five nearby towns to assist in fighting the flames which threatened to destroy an entire block of dwellings.

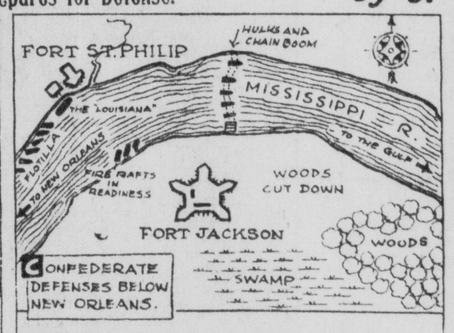
New Orleans Prepares for Defense.

by J. CARROLL MANSFIELD

GEN. MANSFIELD LOVELL, CONFEDERATE COMMANDER AT NEW ORLEANS

WHEN THE CONFEDERATE AUTHORITIES IN NEW ORLEANS LEARNED THAT THE FEDERAL GOVERNMENT WAS SENDING AN EXPEDITION TO CAPTURE THE CITY AND WREST THE CONTROL OF THE LOWER MISSISSIPPI FROM THE CONFEDERACY, THEY MADE HURRIED PREPARATIONS FOR DEFENSE.

MOST OF THE LOUISIANA REGIMENTS WERE AWAY AT THE FRONT, BUT THERE WAS A FORCE IN NEW ORLEANS UNDER GENERAL LOVELL. THE CHIEF DEFENSES OF THE CITY, HOWEVER, WERE THE STRONG FORTS JACKSON AND ST. PHILIP, WHICH FACED EACH OTHER ACROSS THE MISSISSIPPI SOME 75 MILES BELOW THE CITY AND 30 MILES ABOVE THE MOUTH OF THE RIVER.



THESE FORTS MOUNTED MANY HEAVY GUNS AND EACH WAS GARRISONED BY 700 MEN. JUST BELOW THE FORTS THE RIVER WAS BARRED BY A BOOM OF CHAIN CABLES STRETCHED ACROSS A NUMBER OF ANCHORED HULKS, WHILE UPSTREAM LAY A SMALL FLEET OF RIVER GUNBOATS AND THE RAM "MANASSAS".

TWO GREAT IRONCLADS WERE BEING BUILT IN LOUISIANA SHIPYARDS AND ONE OF THESE, THE "LOUISIANA" (16 GUNS) WAS HURRIEDLY COMPLETED AND PUT IN SERVICE. HER ENGINES PROVED FAULTY AND SHE WAS MOORED NEAR FORT ST. PHILIP TO BE USED AS A STATIONARY FLOATING BATTERY.

First Drill For Mounted Engineers Held Last Night

First drill and meeting of the recruits secured to date for Company B, 125th Mounted Engineers, was held last night in the armory on Neshannock avenue. Every one of the thirty-four men, who have enlisted in the new unit were in attendance. Drill was held and the interest shown speaks well for the success of the new unit.
The armory will be kept open each evening from now until the quota of fifty men for the unit will have been secured. Young men interested in gaining an excellent knowledge of engineering will find it to their advantage to enlist in the new unit.

Railway Clerks Seek Increase

(International News Service)
NEW YORK, Mar. 1. — The United States Board of Arbitration today took up cross-examination of date presented by representatives of 20,000 railway clerks, freight handlers and station employes of the New York Central who are asking a 12 per cent increase in wages, which would amount to about $3,000,000 annually.
The employes contend that the scale now being paid is about 55 cents an hour lower than the average wage paid union labor in general.

N. Y. STOCKS

(International News Service)
NEW YORK, Mar 1.—After a strong and firm opening, in which numerous active industrial and railroad stocks advanced one to 3 points, the market encountered a heavy outburst of selling in early trading today and prices were deflected sharply downward.
The $43,500,000 gain in brokers loans, as reported by the Federal Reserve Board after the close of Monday's market, was an evidence of a broadening public participation in the stock market, and the professionals who have been working for lower prices make a vigorous effort to engineer another "shake out" in the high priced industrials and rails which have been in the forefront of the advance. Profit taking helped along the "healthy reaction" and the market turned definitely downward for the first time in a week.
The bulge in the first period carried General Motors, U. S. Steel, and other well known stocks up a point or two, where the huge volume of selling orders was encountered. A number of specialty stocks and industrials moved against the trend, American Ice being the most conspicuous in the latter group and International Combustion Engineering in the former. Baldwin Locomotive sold off about 4 points, and neither Houston Oil nor General Asphalt were able to continue their spectacular movements.
Call money was unchanged at 4½ per cent. Commodity markets were steady, with cotton up about a dollar a bale.

Would Authorize New Delaware River Bridge

(International News Service)
HARRISBURG, Pa., Mar. 1. — Senator Flora Vare, of Philadelphia, introduced a bill in the senate today which would create a commission to study the question of erecting an additional bridge across the Delaware River between Philadelphia and New Jersey.
The commission would be empowered to decide the cite for the bridge and all other problems affecting preliminary stages. The bill provides for a $50,000 appropriation. The bill is similar to one introduced several weeks ago by Senator Macdade, of Delaware county.

Impeachment To Be Dropped

(International News Service)
WASHINGTON, March 1.—The house judiciary committee today decided to drop impeachment proceedings against Federal Judge Frank Cooper of the northern New York district.
At the same time, the committee, in its report, censured some of Judge Cooper's activities in connection with prohibition undercover work.
"The evidence is not sufficient to warrant an impeachment bill," the committee said. Impeachment of Cooper was sought by Rep. La Guardia, R., of New York, a wet.

total and is estimated by H. A. Ebeling the owner-manager at approximately $5,000. Insurance to the extent of $1,800 was carried. This concern is already looking for a new location in which to resume business.
The damage to the building, which is owned by Samuel Foltz is in excess of $10,000 and is fully covered by insurance. Mr. Foltz will have a temporary roof constructed at once to protect the tenants not put entirely out of business.
It was about 2:15 a. m., when two men rushed out of Sycamore Way and got in touch with Officer Joseph Greer, explaining that there was a considerable fire in the Foltz building. Officer Greer turned in an alarm from box 28, corner of Mill and Washington streets, calling the Central companies, No. 2 and No. 6 companies to the scene.
When Chief Charles Lynn and the central companies arrived on the scene, the Ebeling Electric shop on the second floor was a seething mass of flames and it was evident that additional help would be needed. Five minutes after the first alarm, a second alarm had been turned in, calling the No. 4 and No. 5 companies to the scene.

Explosion Occurs

Chief Lynn and Fireman Zeitler took a line up the stairway to the Ebeling place of business immediately after their arrival. They had just reached the top of the stairs and turned on the water, when smoke and accummulated gas fumes from the blaze, ignited and an explosion occurred. They were literally boosted or pushed down the stairway by the force of the explosion.
About the same time, the skylight dropped in and the tense condition of the atmosphere in the stairway was relieved and the line was taken back up for a time and then removed to the front of the building and used through a window.
In a short time after the second alarm and the arrival of Assistant Chief H. Clare Stockman and the other companies, four additional lines were playing on the blaze, which had reached large proportions and seemed to be threatening adjoining buildings. Two were used from the Sycamore Way side of the building and two from Mill street. The water pressure was excellent and no engines were needed.
The firemen continued to flood the place until about 4 a. m., when the fire was under control, when it became necessary to tear off the wooden ceiling from the original plaster ceiling, as the fire had eaten its way up in between the two ceilings.
The fire was at all times confined to the Ebeling place of business on the second floor and damage sustained on the first floor was the result of the immense quantities of water that it was necessary to pour on the flames to put them out.

False Alarms Sent In

While the fire was at its height about 2:30 a. m., No. 3 company which had come into the central department for service in the entire city outside the seventh ward, received a telephone call to the effect that there was a fire in the Arlington avenue district. Box 48 was sounded and No. 3 company went to that district. Assistant Chief Stockman was also dispatched to that district from the scene of the fire. The assistant chief and No. 3 company searched the district thoroughly but without finding any fire.
No. 3 company had hardly returned to service from this call, when a second telephone call was received at 3:05 a. m. to the effect that there was a fire on Center street. An alarm was turned in from box 51 and No. 3 went for this district. Chief Lynn also heard the alarm as sounded and sent No. 5 company to this district. The firemen searched the district diligently but found no evidence of fire or a telephone call for assistance in fighting a blaze.
This has occurred in several instances lately when there has been an early morning fire of considerable proportions and Chief Lynn this morning stated an investigation for the purpose of running down, if possible, the person responsible for this condition.
It is believed that some person with an uncontrolable desire to see the firemen in action and also make things as difficult as possible, is making a practice of calling in other fire alarms, when it is known that many of the firemen are busy at some other point.
If the person or persons responsible for this condition of affairs is located, they will be punished to the full extent of the law.
The fire this morning is believed to have had its inception in the northwestern corner of the Ebeling Electric shop.

Grimes Marriage Bill Is Passed

(International News Service)
HARRISBURG, Pa., Mar. 1. — The House of Representatives today acted on a large number of bills on final passage, among the early ones to go through being the Grimes bill, establishing the minimum marriage are at sixteen years. The only exception in the bill making sixteen the minimum age, is upon special permission from a court judge.

No man is old until he needs a shave about half the time.

State Senators Pass Three Bills At Session Today

Thirteen Important Bills Are Advanced To Third And Final Reading

By WILLIAM B. BROWN
International News Service Staff Correspondent

HARRISBURG, Pa., March 1.—Three bills were passed finally at today's session of the Senate, and 13 others advanced to third reading for action tomorrow.
Included in the bills passed to third reading was that of Senator Salus, Philadelphia, which will continue the commission appointed to select and acquire a site for the erection of an eastern penitentiary.
The bill appropriating $500,000 for the erection of a new executive mansion also was passed to come up for final action in the senate tomorrow.
Thirty bills were reported from committee and passed to the calendar for tomorrow. Practically all of them are designed to care for local and restricted situations.
Senator Buckman, Bucks, introduced a series of bills drawn by the state department of highways. They amend a number of former acts to conform with present practices and add additional powers to the department.
The senate recessed at 12:30 until 5 o'clock this afternoon.
Immediately after adjournment the sub-committee of the elections committee which was appointed this morning went into session to consider the bills before it. They were instructed to be prepared to report on the bills not later than next Tuesday.

State Legislature Has Busy Session

March 23 Is Set As Final Date For Introducing New Bills

By ROBERT F. GORMAN
International News Service Staff Correspondent

HARRISBURG, Pa., March 1.—Following the busiest Monday night session of the present legislature, the house had before it another day full of business when it met at 11 o'clock. Almost two score of bills were on the calendar for final passage and indications were that a recess would break the day into two sessions with a number of hearings arranged for the recess period. The house ways and means committee was to meet this afternoon to hear reports of the Pennsylvania tax commission on the series of bills that commission has had prepared.
After the present week members of the house will have but three weeks additional during which they may introduce bills for the lower body of the legislature has adopted a resolution fixing March 23 as the final date for the presentation of bills.
Referred to a committee for study today was a bill presented by Representative Baldi, Philadelphia, permitting betting and wagering on horse racing in Pennsylvania and the operation of pari-mutual machines. The bill would create a racing commission of three persons to be appointed by the governor not more than two of whom shall belong to the same political party. Racing days would be limited to 100 in each year and no one association or individual could be granted a permit for a longer period than 30 days. The license fee would be $6,000 a day on tracks within a distance of 50 miles of Philadelphia, Pittsburgh or Scranton. On all other tracks the fee would be $2,000 a day. The fees would be used for highway purposes.

Ammonia Masks Prove Useful To Service In City

The ammonia masks in the possession of the fire department have proven their usefulness on several occasions recently, according to Assistant Fire Chief H. Clare Stockman.
There have been numerous occasions in the past few months when the new type refrigeration systems have gone out of order and it was necessary to have the ammonia masks in order to get at the source of trouble.
The most recent incident of this kind was at the New Castle hospital, when a leak occurred in the line of the refrigeration system and a part of the hospital was becoming filled with the fumes. The mask was used effectively, the man having it on spending several minutes in the ammonia-filled part of the building without the least ill effect.

Brothers Held On Murder Charge

(International News Service)
WASHINGTON, Pa., March 1.—At the coroner's inquest held in the Vestaburg Coal company offices at Denbo, Pa., today Robert and Roy Wenrich, brothers, were recommended held for the Grand jury on a charge of first degree murder for the slaying of Lewis Knapp, of Kane, Pa., and Paul Fox, coal and iron police.
Two witnesses testified they saw the Wenrichs drive toward the scene of the shooting shortly before the two men were shot down in a gun battle with alleged bootleggers.
The men will be held in jail here until the Grand jury meets next May unless the court provides for their release in bond.

House Passes Repealer For Ludlow Act

(International News Service)
HARRISBURG, Pa., March 1.—On a special order of business set for noon today, the house of representatives passed finally the Wilson bill which serves to repeal the Ludlow Act which provides a minimum sentence of one-half the maximum sentence for persons convicted of crime.
The bill passed by a vote of 173 to 8. Contrary to all expectations there was no speech for or against the measure.

New Castle High To Play Farrell Here Wednesday

Section IV Champions Schedule Farrell Team For Game Wednesday

Faculty Manager Ralph H. Gardner announced today that New Castle High's team would battle Farrell High here Wednesday night at the Senior High court. The game will start at 8 o'clock.
The Farrell team is runnersup for the Mercer county title this year the "Steelers' have established an enviable record to date. The Farrell team will give the locals plenty of opposition.
The game tomorrow night will serve as a tune-up battle to the elimination game to be staged in Pittsburgh on Friday night March 11.
Season tickets will be good for the New Castle-Farrell game tomorrow night, said Gardner.

Appropriation Bill Is Reported Out

(International News Service)
HARRISBURG, Pa., March 1.—The general appropriation bill, carrying appropriations for the ordinary expenses of the state government for the next two years, was reported out of committee by Representative McBride of Allegheny county today.
The bill was given its initial reading and will receive its second reading tomorrow after which it will be re-committed for amendments and changes in appropriation figures. The procedure today was for the purpose of speeding up action on the measure.

Strong Cast To Be Presented In Rose Marie Here

Rose Marie, which is to be presented at the Scottish Rite Cathedral here on the evening of March 8, is said to be one of the most captivating musical successes ever produced in America. It is a musical play that once seen, will be seen again and again, when the opportunity is afforded. This has been demonstrated here by the fact that numbers of persons, who had seen the play before will be on hand Tuesday, March 8, to witness it again.
The play is a happy combination of dramatic complications and comedy situations, all set to beautiful music. Beulah Berson, charming and dainty young Brooklyn girl will portray the part of Rose-Marie La Flamme. Playing opposite her in the part of Jim Kenyon, the hero lover is Paul J. Gregory. He has a clear ringing tenor voice and a personality that appeals to the audience. Included in the cast are Harry Koler, Marie Eline, Len Mence, William Gaston, Thomas Chadwick, Romona Kogan and Paul E. Porter.

Giant Tenders Being Tried On E. & A. Division

Tenders with a capacity of 18,000 gallons of water are being tried out on the E. & A. division of the Pennsylvania Railroad between Niles and Shire Oaks.
Recently an engine equipped with this enormous water tank moved a train of 5896 tons (63 loads) a distant of 57 miles and found still two feet of water in the tank.
During the summer season it is planned to use these large tanks on the ore runs from Ashtabula to Conway as thus the run will be able to be made with taking water only once on this long run.

Masontown Has $100,000 Fire Early Today

Principal Business Block Of Small West Virginia Town Ruined

(International News Service)
MORGANTOWN, W. Va., Mar. 1.—Fire which for a time threatened the entire town of Masontown, near here early today laid waste the principal business block, with a loss estimated at $100,000.
The flames destroyed the Street Department Store, and rapidly spread to adjoining buildings in the block. An improvised school room which occupied the second floor of the building was a total loss.
Volunteer firement battled the blaze by means of a bucket brigade which reached to Deckers Creek on the outskirts of town. Arrival of a fire company from Kingwood, nearby, probably saved the community from being swept by fire. The Kingwood firemen set up two pumping machines from the creek to the burning buildings, pumping water a half mile.
The fire was believed to have been caused by defective wiring in the Street store.

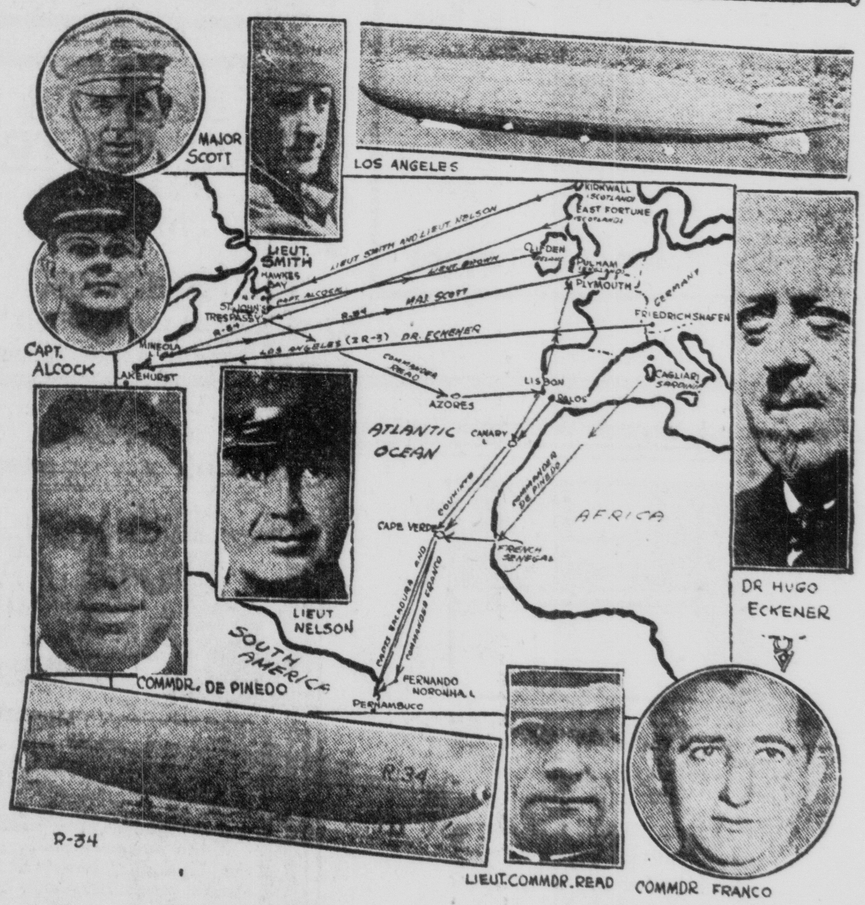
President Still Hopes For Agreement On Disarmament

WASHINGTON, March 1.—President Coolidge remains distinctly hopeful that some means will be found at Geneva to reach an agreement limiting the auxiliary naval ship strength of the five great powers, despite the unfavorable replies to his invitation sent by France and Italy.
This was made clear at the White House today, simultaneously with the announcement that Mr. Coolidge does not believe it practicable for the United States, Great Britain and Japan to engage in any tri-party agreement. This definitely disposed of rumors that the president would make an alternative proposal for a three-power treaty, leaving out France and Italy.

NINE AIRSHIPS HAVE CONQUERED ATLANTIC



Commander Francesco de Pinedo, Italian aviator's recent flight from Cagliari, Sardinia to Pernambuco by way of French Senegal and the Cape Verde Islands brings the total of transAtlantic flights to nine. Commdr. Albert C. Read, U. S. N., was the first man to fly across the Atlantic. In May, 1919 he crossed in the NC-4. Others who have successfully crossed in heavier-than-air-machines are Capt. John Alcock and Lieut. Arthur W. Brown, British, in June, 1919; Capts. Sacadura and Couhinto, Portuguese, in 1922. Lieut. Lowell H. Smith and Lieut. Erik Nelson, U. S. A., in 1924. Commdr. Ramon Franco, Spanish, in 1926. Two dirigibles, the British R34, under command of Maj. G. H. Scott, and the ZR-3 (now the Los Angeles) have made the trip. The former in 1919 and the latter in 1924. Dr. Hugo Eckener piloted the ZR-3. Routes taken by these aviators are indicated on the map above.

Murder Occurs At Warren, Ohio

Shooting Takes Place In Lobby Of Postoffice Monday Afternoon

LOVE TRIANGLE ALLEGED CAUSE

WARREN, O., March 1.—The eternal triangle, two men and one woman, was blamed by police for the fatal shooting of Walter Holcomb, 55, by Ernest Fredericks, 42, in the lobby of the postoffice here on Monday afternoon.

A large crowd witnessed the shooting but was unable to prevent the man from emptying ten shots into his victim.

Deputy Sheriff P. A. Harter, who happened to be outside the building, rushed in. When Frederick, who was standing with a gun in his hand, saw the deputy, he surrendered.

"I have shot the third end of a triangle and sent a soul to hell that was long past due", Frederick declared after the shooting.

"The affair has been going on for some time", he added, "and it sent me to the sanitarium with a nervous breakdown."

Frederick had just returned home after spending several months in a sanitarium and in Cleveland.

Friends of the slain man and Frederick's wife, however, say his charges are untrue.

Holcomb had entered the postoffice to get his mail at a box and was starting to leave when he encountered Frederick.

"Hello, Walter", the latter said, and then suddenly fired five shots at Holcomb. Witnesses said Holcomb fell at the second shot.

Uses Two Weapons

After emptying his first gun, Frederick is said to have taken off his gloves, unbuttoned an overcoat, pulled out another gun and, assuming a kneeling position, shot at Holcomb again.

Before being taken to the police station Frederick asked police to get his wife, who was working at the Y. W. C. A., stating she would kill herself when she heard about it. When she came in the patrol wagon he declared:

"It's all over now, Gertrude."

Both men are well known here. Frederick is an expert gunsmith and until he was taken to the sanitarium was employed at the Trumbull Steel Co. At one time he was office manager of the plant.

Holcomb, who formerly conducted a meat market in Warren, is survived by his widow and one son.

MARCH A DANGEROUS MONTH

Fortify Your System Against Colds Take Father John's Medicine Now.

March is the most dangerous month of the year because the change of season is more than a good many systems can stand. Too often it is true that the sick "last only till spring." But, if the system is fortified if the impurities are driven from the blood, and the nerve tissues fed with wholesome and strength-giving food medicine, there is no danger in the change of seasons. Father John's Medicine is invaluable as a tonic in the spring. It strengthens the system and drives out the poisonous waste matter—builds up the body. It is this power that has made it so successful in the treatment of colds and throat troubles. No alcohol or harmful drugs. Over 70 years of health victory.

DOCTORS AGREED

The world's greatest doctors agree that the best way to treat a cold is to use just such remedies as are combined in Father John's Medicine, free from drugs and alcohol. Seventy years' success.

A MOTHER'S STORY

Mrs. Arthur Marshall, Chicopee, Mass., writes: "Father John's Medicine has been used in our family for more than twenty years as a remedy for colds and whooping cough. I always recommend it."

To End Severe Cough Quickly, Try This

For real results, this old home-made remedy beats them all. Easily prepared.

You'll never know how quickly a bad cough can be conquered, until you try this famous home-made remedy. The immediate relief given is almost like magic. It is easily prepared, and there is nothing better for coughs.

Into a pint bottle, put 2½ ounces of Pinex; then add plain granulated sugar syrup to make a full pint. Or you can use clarified honey, instead of sugar syrup. Either way, the full pint saves about two-thirds of the money usually spent for cough preparations, and gives you a more positive, effective remedy. It keeps perfectly, and tastes pleasant—children like it.

You can feel this take hold instantly, soothing and healing the membranes in all the air passages. It promptly loosens a dry, tight cough, and soon you will notice the phlegm thin out and disappear. A day's use will usually break up an ordinary throat or chest cold, and it is also splendid for bronchitis, hoarseness, and bronchial asthma.

Pinex is a most valuable concentrated compound of genuine Norway pine extract and palatable guaiacol, the most reliable remedy for throat and chest ailments.

To avoid disappointment, ask your druggist for "2½ ounces of Pinex" with directions. Guaranteed to give absolute satisfaction or money promptly refunded. The Pinex Co., Ft. Wayne, Ind.

High School Music; Literary Contest With Sharpsville

GROVE CITY, Pa., March 1.—Grove City high school will meet the Sharpsville high school in the second music-literary contest of the year next Thursday evening, March 3, at 7:30. Each school will be represented by two teams, staging two contests, one at Grove City, in the high school auditorium and one in Sharpsville.

At the annual county round-up held in Mercer last year the Sharpsville team tied the local school contestants for second position, and especially keen interest is being expressed by the students of both schools over the approaching contest. Grove City lost their first competitive event of the season to Sharon and are out to stage a comeback against the Sharpsville stars.

Announcement was made this week of the several subjects and titles from which selections will be made by the contestants in the several events. Except in debate, three subjects are submitted by the county committee, from which the contestants can choose. The list so submitted by the committee is as follows: Debate, "Resolved, that the Philippines should be given their immediate independence." Oration, "My Social Responsibility", "Worthy Use of Leisure", or any one of the Sun's list for 1927. Declamation, "America's Uncrowned Queen", Homer T. Wilson; "The Prodigal Son", "Lincoln a Man Called of God", John M. Thurston; essay; Physical Efficiency, Mussolini, Dictator, or Derelicts; violin solo; andante from Orpheus, Gluck; rondino, Beethoven-Kreisler; Salute d'Armour, op. 1, Elgar; vocal solo for boys, Duna-McGill; Ma Lillte Banjo, Dichmont; Come to the Fair, Martin; vocal solo for girls; Thank God for a Garden, Del Reigo; Trees, Rasbach; Lass with the Delicate Air, Arne; piano: Valse in A flat op. 39 No. 15, Brahms; D Minor (No. 4) Invention, Bach; Bourse from Second Sonata for violin (arranged for the piano); recitation, "The Deacon's Masterpiece", Holmes; "The Cotter's Saturday night", Burns; "The Fool's Prayer", Rowland Sill.

Find 750 Gallon Still In Pittsburgh

(International News Service)

PITTSBURGH, Mar. 1.—Prohibition officers today sought Joe Stantusso, for questioning in connection with a raid carried on by dry agents at the home and garage of Joseph Lazzari, at East Monongahela, Pa., where, they charged, they found a 750 gallon capacity still, and a quantity of mash, sugar and moonshine. Stantusso, dry agents said, is believed to have been Lazzari's partner.

The officers confiscated the still, 55 gallons of moonshine, 83 gallons of mash, 8,600 pounds of sugar and an electric engine, they reported. In the garage they found 11 automobiles. (CQ)

Lazzari was held in $1,000 bond for a hearing before a U. S. commissioner here Wednesday, March 2, at 2:30 p. m.

Music Hath Charms (?)

Overheard in a fraternity house: "They say that Bill is a wonderful singer."

"Yep. He's certainly good at instrumental music."

"You sap, singing isn't instrumental music."

"That may be so, but Jack says it was instrumental in making him move away from the fraternity house.—College Life.

HERE'S A REAL EXPERIENCE

"I'm going to try to tell you how I was, I used to go to bed to toss around. Sometimes I'd dream. Then in the morning I felt I couldn't get up. But after I got up and drank a cup of strong coffee I just had to whip myself to work. I dragged around all day, too tired to work, too sick to enjoy anything, and came home at night without life or spirit.

Didn't Believe It

"I didn't believe medicine would do me any good, because I'd tried a lot of it. When somebody told me I had catarrh, and that if I got rid of it I'd be well, I laughed at them. I didn't believe catarrh could cause all these troubles. But my friend was insistent, and he induced me to get a bottle of World's Tonic.

"Plenty of Pep"

"Say, it was wonderful. Before I had finished the first bottle, I knew I was on the road to recovery. Now I sleep like a man ought to, I get up in the morning refreshed, and I go through a day's work like a knife cutting butter. Then in the evenings I have plenty of pep to enjoy life.

"You needn't tell me. I'm telling my neighbors, and whenever I see a poor fellow just managing to get along I coax him to buy a bottle of World's Tonic. Then he tells the other fellow. That's why your World's Tonic has such a wonderful sale—it makes good. "Yours in health John J. Juvasho, Ambridg, Pa.

This remarkable treatment for catarrhal and other run down conditions is sold by McKee's, Eckerd's, Paisley's, Smith's, and all other reliable drug stores. (209)
